If you need a place to take a break with your child, a nursery area is available. Washrooms are available on the main level of the church. Please ask a sidesperson or your neighbour if you have questions or need assistance. You're warmly invited to join us for refreshments in the parish hall following the service.

The Gathering of the Community

Prelude " A Substantial Verse" Thomas Tomkins (1572 – 1656)

Welcome

Processional Hymn CP 89 – "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel"

Acnowledgement

Celebrant We begin by acknowledging that we live, work, play, and worship on the traditional and unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples including the xʷməθkwəy̓əm (Musqueam), Sḵwx̱wú7mesh (Squamish) and Səl̓ílwətaʔ (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations.

All May our words and our actions reflect our awareness and appreciation of this.

A moment of silence for reflection is kept.

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant In the beginning, there was chaos. There were troubled dreams, uncertain sounds, and fear in the darkness. Then, when the chaos was most threatening, when uncertainty seemed the only certain thing, the cup seemed perpetually half empty, and the light at the end of the tunnel turned out to be just our imagination, God said, "Let there be light."

People And there was Hope.

The first Advent candle is lit.

Celebrant The light of Hope lifts our eyes and calls us forward in Advent. To our uncertain and timid world, it proclaims brazenly that there is a tomorrow. It asserts that hope for the future is not to be found in improved financial portfolios or better self-affirmation. The candle of hope reminds us that there is something to cling to:

All God is, and God will.

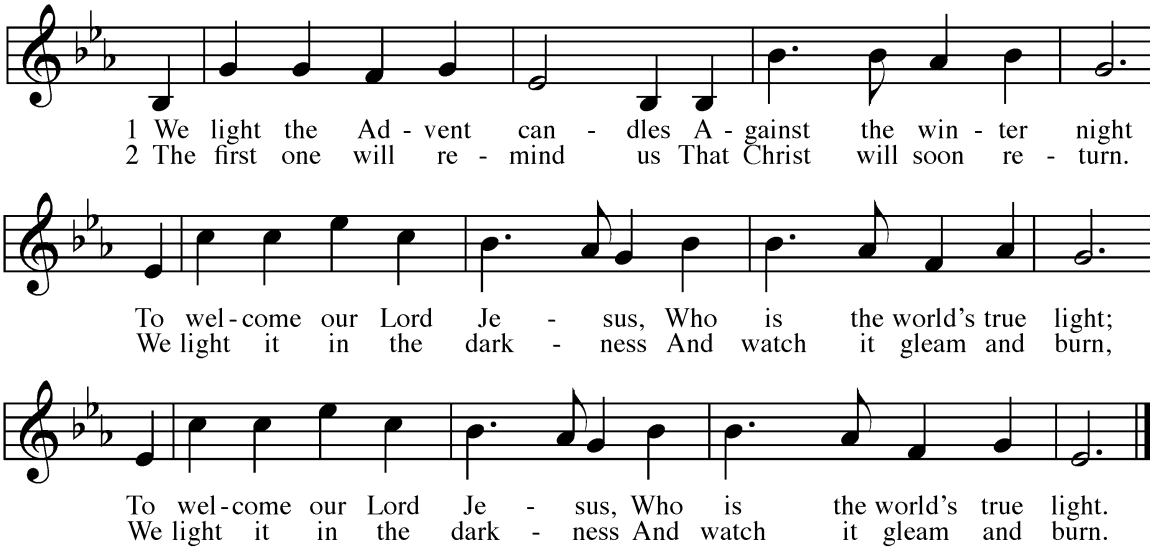
The Advent Carol



Advent Litany

Celebrant God of hope, who brought love into this world,
People be the hope that dwells between us.
Celebrant God of love, who brought peace into this world,
People be the peace that dwells between us.
Celebrant God of love, who brought joy into this world,
People be the joy that dwells between us.
Celebrant God of hope, the rock we stand upon,
People be the center, the focus of our lives always, and particularly this Advent time.

The Collect of the Day

EvLW 18; Adv 1C

Celebrant Let us pray.
Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come.
People By your merciful protection awaken us to the threatening dangers of our sins, and keep us blameless until the coming of your new day,
Celebrant for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
All Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word

The Readings

Old Testament Jeremiah 33:14-16

read by Paul Harrison

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness." NRSV

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
All Thanks be to God.

Psalm 25:1-9

Celebrant To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul;
Left my God, I put my trust in you;
Right let me not be humiliated, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Celebrant Let none who look to you be put to shame;
People let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.

Choir Show me your ways, O Lord, and teach me your paths.

Celebrant Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation;
People in you have I trusted all the day long.

Celebrant Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love,
High Voices for they are from everlasting.
Celebrant Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions;
Low Voices remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.

High Voices Gracious and upright is the Lord;
Low Voices therefore he teaches sinners in his way.

Choir He guides the humble in doing right and teaches his way to the lowly.

All All the paths of the Lord are love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 3:9-13 read by Paul Harrison

How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you? Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith. Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you. And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints. NRSV

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
All Thanks be to God.

Please stand or sit for the Gospel reading as is most appropriate for you.

Gospel Acclamation CP 113 – "Come, O Lord, and Set Us Free"
Refrain—Stanza 1—Refrain

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
All And also with you.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Holy Gospel Luke 21:25-36

Jesus said, "There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in a cloud' with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." Then he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man." NRSV

Celebrant The Gospel of Christ.
All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation CP 113 – "Come, O Lord, and Set Us Free," Refrain only

Sermon The Reverend Lorne Manweiler, Rector

Affirmation of Faith – The Apostles' Creed

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the Community

Brian Mix, Intercessor

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God,

All We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Ev Luth Worship, 110

Celebrant The Lord be with you

All And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. You comforted your people with the promise of the Redeemer, through whom you will also make all things new in the day when he comes to judge the world in righteousness. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name:

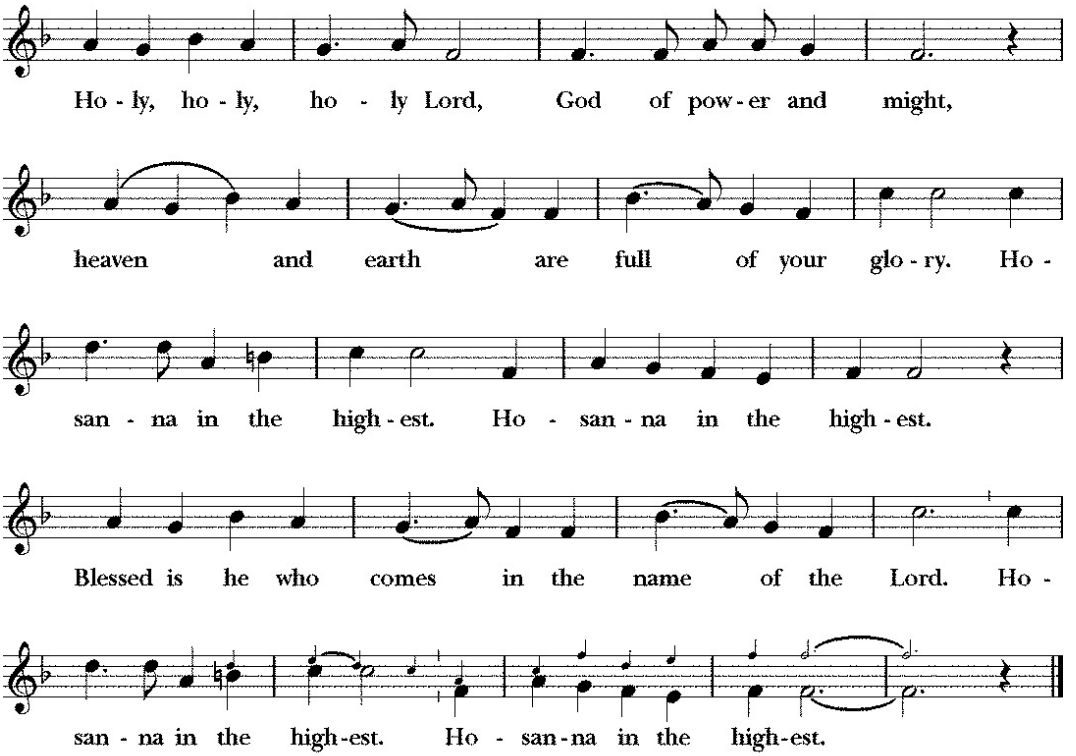
All



Celebrant Holy One, the beginning and end, the giver of life;
Blessed are you for the birth of creation.
Blessed are you in the darkness and in the light.
Blessed are you for your promise to your people.
Blessed are you for the prophets' hopes and dreams.
Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.
Blessed are you for your Son Jesus, the Word made flesh.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gace thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to frink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Celebrant With this bread and cup we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth. We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection. We look with hope for his coming.

All Come, Lord Jesus.

Celebrant Holy God, we long for your Spirit. Come among us. Bless this meal. May your Word take flesh in us. Awaken your people. Fill us with Your light. Bring the gift of peace on earth.

All Come, Lord Jesus.

Celebrant All praise and glory are yours, Holy One of Israel, Word of God incarnate, Power of the Most High, one God, now and forever.

All

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Come to Christ's banquet. Feast on God's gift of grace.

People Christ comes to us with light and life—with healing hands.

The Communion

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God.

People Thanks be to God.

Some helps regarding Communion at St. Philip's during COVID-19:

- Please follow the direction of the ushers to come forward for Communion;
- the bread, the body of Christ, is offered at this time so that we all can more safely celebrate the Eucharist together; temporarily, the priest receives the wine, Christ's blood, from the chalice, on behalf of God's people;
- hand sanitizer should be used before communing and is available as you come forward;
- please commune individually or in your cohort group to ensure safer physical distancing.

Set on Saturday Dec 11th 2021 at 2pm; reception will follow the service at the Parish Hall.

"GROWING TOGETHER" - STEWARDSHIP 2022

This year's Stewardship Campaign offers an opportunity to reflect upon and act on the ways we can share our gifts from God with this wonderful parish: to grow together in faith, community, fellowship, service and love!

Last Sunday, Michael McKenzie presented the Stewardship Moment, sharing why he supports St Philip's as much as our people support him through joy and loss. Michael shares his time and talents in the choir, has served as a Warden, and was chosen as a Steward of St Philip's for his dedication to our church.

Stewardship packages were emailed and handed out at church to worshippers on Sunday, Nov. 7. More can be found in the narthex. Almost 61% of our budget comes from identified givers who pledge and give regularly. St Philip's sets its 2022 budget based on the pledges received. Our pledges are absolutely essential. Please make a financial pledge for 2022, and deliver your pledge form to the office or the collection plate as soon as you are able.

PRAYER LIST

Please pray for those who have asked for our prayers at this time: Min Rundle, Geordon, Ann Ringgold, Billy, Brenda, Nassrin, Greg, Brian Wooding, Doris Menoche, Marie, Kevin, Sean Moore, Tom and Rosie, Michael and Suzie, Mike and Rob.

Please pray for all those mourning for recent losses. Let us pray for all those who have died recently, remembering especially Ursula Bell and Frankie Hallen.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR

The flowers at the Altar are given to the glory of God by Sarah Burns and family in loving memory of Sarah's cousin Susan Evans.

If anyone would like to make a donation towards the church flowers in thanksgiving of a Birthday, Anniversary, or In Memory of a loved one, please contact the office. All donations are most appreciated.

NEIGHBOURHOOD MINISTRY

Last weekend the team we sent out from St Philip's was loaded with food and clothing items donated by all of you. Your gifts made the people that our team met last weekend feel loved and supported, thank you.

As you are cleaning your cupboards and making space for anticipated Christmas goodies, please consider a donation to the Neighbourhood Ministry. Please remember we are only taking winter items and ones that are appropriate for the street. Items like dresses, suits, and shirts with collars aren't suitable and we end up either tossing them or lugging them down to the charity shop. Items that are dirty, smelly, or heavily stained get thrown out.

There are a number of things we can never seem to get enough of and we need now:

- Warm, waterproof jackets
- Waterproof pants
- Sleeping Bags
- Sleeping Mats
- Tents

- Tarps
- McDonald's Gift Cards
- Cereal Bars

Please choose cereal bars like Nutrigrain: chewy bars are difficult for our friends on the street to chew. The gift cards are a great way to give some folks a break from the cold and rain. McDonald's is very lenient with letting people nurse a cup of coffee for a long time.
