A Service of the Word

This liturgy is based on the

*Anglican Church of Canada Book of Alternative Services

We are still using safe practises. All people 12 and up are required to show proof of vaccination. Masks are required. There is no congregational singing. At the appropriate time you will be directed to the nearest Communion Station; there will be one at the front and one at the rear of the church. Being safe also require Christian caring for one another; please be gentle and kind.

Please note that there are announcements in the leaflet following the service.

Zoom host: Tony Smith

Land acknowledgement

Hymn: 106 There's a Voice in the Wilderness

Musicians Kate Fitzsimmons, Lori Gooldrup, and Georgia Smith

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,
All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen

Advent Wreath

Deacon: On this second Sunday of Advent the candle stands for peace; God's promise is for peace that passes understanding. This means not only peace in our own hearts but peace in a troubled world. Pray for peace. The LA lights the second candle.

Song

Light one candle to watch for Messiah:
let the light banish darkness
He shall bring salvation to Israel,
God fulfills the promise.

Light two candles to watch for Messiah;
let the light banish darkness
He shall feed the flock like a shepherd,
gently lead them homeward.

Confession

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ,

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;

God welcomes sinners and invites them to the table.

Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Peace

We return to a monastic custom as we bow to one another, reminding ourselves that each of us is made In the image of God.

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Hymn : 91 People Look East

The Altar is prepared and we offer our gifts of bread and wine and ourselves.

The Eucharistic Prayer for Advent is from "Evangelical Lutheran Worship"

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise

The priest continues the Eucharistic Prayer.

... we give thanks and raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

...Remembering his death we cry out Amen. Amen!

Celebrating his Resurrection we shout Amen! Amen!

Trusting his presence in every time and place we plead, Amen.
Amen.

...life in you,, now and for ever.

People Amen

officiant As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

People Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

Celebrant God of promise, you prepare a banquet for us in your kingdom.

People Happy are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.

For those present on Zoom this prayer of Spiritual Communion may be used.

In union, O God, with all your faithful people gathered wherever the eucharist is celebrated this day, I offer you praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption given to us through the life, death and resurrection of Christ, and for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I pray you come into my heart, my soul and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you. May I serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your promised reign of justice and peace; through Christ and in the unity of the Spirit. Amen.

When all have received the priest gives thanks.

Glory to God

Whose power working in us

Can do infinitely more

Than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation

In the Church and in Christ Jesus

Forever and ever. Amen.

Blessing

For those who are in danger or suffering losses due to flooding. For our military response team and others working to restore safety and reduce flooding.

For the many who have died from drug overdose due to fentanyl and for those who work for prevention.

For those seeking healing and hope: Winn, Lyn, Marg, Bryn, Stella, Phyllis, Connie, Kelsey, Bill, William and Sheila, Isabel, Esme, Pat, Ed, Dulcey.

The Provincial House of Bishops offers this prayer:

God of compassion, we pray for all who have suffered losses and trauma because of this storm. We pray for those stranded or evacuated, and for those who have lost homes and livelihood. Bless and strengthen those providing food, shelter, and care; and all first responders and crews still working to rescue people and animals.

We give thanks for the courage and generosity of those responding to the crisis, for all the acts of neighborliness and kindness.

God of Life, give courage and healing to all who have been affected.

Give all leaders and responders endurance and resourcefulness.

May we each find ways to bring your comfort, hope and calm in the midst of this anxious time.

Strengthen our resolve to make the changes necessary to care for your Earth. In the name of Christ our healer. Amen.

Let the Prayer Chain know if you have a confidential prayer concern.

Breaking News...

Worship Services to Return to the Sanctuary

Why do we require proof of vaccination? Many Anglicans are particularly vulnerable by reason of age or health. The youngest among us are only now beginning to be vaccinated. We owe ourselves every possibility of safety in these vulnerable times. We invite the unvaccinated to attend by zoom

Borrow a Hymnal or a BAS

If you attend by zoom and need to borrow a hymn book or a Book of Alternate Services from the church you are welcome to stop by on Wednesday morning or call the office to ask for one to be brought to you.

Christmas Service

There will be one service on Christmas Eve. Please call or email the office to indicate whether you prefer 4:00 or 7:00.

Council discussed this at our last meeting. The 4:00 service may prevent those who are working from coming at that time. But the 7:00 may be too late for others. Please call the church with your vote.

There will be no service on Christmas Day.

There will be no service on December 26. Please plan to attend a service at the Cathedral or another church of your choice.

Bring your Prayer Concerns

There are slips of Blue paper at the entrance. Please jot your confidential prayer concern, a name, a worry, a hope. They will be offered at the Altar and the Prayer Chain will pray for them for a week. If you can't come in please email stpeterCRprayerchain@gmail.com

Resources for Advent

Join Bishop Anna beginning Thursday, December 2 for a weekly 2-minute sermon as we journey from Advent to Epiphany, remembering that history is always and everywhere being broken open with new possibility. From Advent to Epiphany | Anglican Diocese of British Columbia
