Prelude

"O Jesu Christ, meins Lebens Licht"

by Helmut Walcha (1970-1991)

Welcome

Processional Hymn CP 102 – "Prepare the way, O Zion"

Acknowledgement

Celebrant

We begin by acknowledging that we live, work, play, and worship on the traditional and unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples including the x^wməθkwəy̓əm (Musqueam), Sḵwxwú7mesh (Squamish) and Səl̓ílwətaʔ (Tseil-Waututh) Nations.

All May our words and our actions reflect our awareness and appreciation of this.

A moment of silence for reflection is kept.

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant In the beginning, there was the chaos of trouble and fear. Then, when uncertainty seemed the only certain thing, and the light at the end of the tunnel turned out to be just our imagination, God said, "Let there be light."

People And there was Hope.

The first Advent candle is lit.

Celebrant In the course of time people became agitated, and there was no space for quietness. Then, when the agitation was at its height, when it seemed that conflict and noise was everywhere God said, "Let there be light."

People And there was Peace.

The second Advent candle is lit.

Celebrant By this time people had learned not to care. They became skilled at loving ice cream, but not other people. Love had turned to hatred, to lust, to infatuation. There was animosity and rejection, hero-worship and self-hate. Then, when hate and apathy seemed to rule the hearts of people, and lust and control were confused with genuine relationships, God said, "Let there be light."

People And there was Love.

The third Advent candle is lit.

Celebrant The light of love calls our hearts into life during Advent. To a world which struggles to love, it declares that the power of love is greater than the love of power. This candle speaks a protest against the falseness of lust, infatuation, and power games in relationships. It pronounces that we cannot go on living with hatred, animosity or ambivalence toward each other. The candle of love blazes with the words:

All God so loved the world that he gave, and gave, and gave.

The Advent Carol

The Proclamation of the Word

The Readings

Old Testament Zephaniah 3:14-20

read by Glenna Geddes

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The LORD has taken away the judgements against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more.

On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you^{*} in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it. I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD. NRSV

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

All Thanks be to God.

Second Reading Philippians 4:4-7

read by Glenna Geddes

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. NRSV

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

All And also with you.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Holy Gospel Luke 3:7-18

John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, ‘You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, “We have Abraham as our ancestor”; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.’

And the crowds asked him, ‘What then should we do?’ In reply he said to them, ‘Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.’ Even tax-collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, ‘Teacher, what should we do?’ He said to them, ‘Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.’ Soldiers also asked him, ‘And we, what should we do?’ He said to them, ‘Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.’

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, ‘I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.’ So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people. NRSV

Celebrant The Gospel of Christ.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation CP 113 – “Come, O Lord, and Set Us Free,” Refrain only

Sermon The Reverend Lorne Manweiler, Rector

Affirmation of Faith – The Apostles’ Creed

Celebrant Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,

All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Most merciful God,

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

NEIGHBOURHOOD MINISTRY

Report by Janice Hope of the Neighbourhood Ministry Outing on November 20th

Janice and Mary headed out from St Philip's with food, clothing and camping supplies. Thanks to Katie for making the sandwiches, Joanne for the fruit and eggs, Nora for doing the packages, Suzi for putting everything together, and the parishioners of St Philip's for all of their donations. It really does take a village to support the Street Outreach Ministry.

It was a good outing; they saw many familiar faces as well as a few people who have only recently connected with the Neighbourhood Ministry, and a couple of new people. Typically at both 4th and Highbury and Granville and Broadway there are a few people waiting for us. In recent weeks we have started to see a group at 7th and Fir (a few of them camp in an underground parking lot there). At this spot one of the women seemed to be quite unwell and Mary and Janice suggested that she might need to go to the hospital or even call 911. She said that she would be OK and one of the men said that he had a phone so could call 911 if necessary. It is nice to see a close knit group of people who look out for each other.

Overall a lot of warm clothing was handed out; the sleeping bags were especially popular. One of the men who took a sleeping bag and mat said that he was really looking forward to a good night's sleep. For a complete report of the outing, click here

Sleeping Bags: As the weather gets colder and damper, our friends on the streets struggle to stay warm. A dry, warm synthetic sleeping bag makes a huge difference. Please consider donating one. Amazon sells one that the NM recommends: Coleman Palmetto Cool Weather Adult Sleeping Bag ($55) Cold Weather Sleeping Bag

If you prefer, please consider donating $50 to the Neighbourhood Ministry to purchase one on your behalf. If you have questions or would like to contribute, contact your parish liaison at St. Philip's, Rhona Thornton. rhonat@telus.net

There are a number of things we can never seem to get enough of:

- Warm, waterproof jackets
- Waterproof pants
- Sleeping Bags, synthetic
- Sleeping Mats
- Tents
- Tarps
- McDonald's Gift Cards (a place to warm up)
- Cereal Bars (soft ones, please)

Please place donations only inside the lidded bin on the NE porch off the courtyard, or in the Narthex on Sundays. We've recently had some problems with the theft of our bins, so they will be only out for a limited time during the day and brought in at night. Please try to bring donations to church on Sundays, if possible.

GREETERS!

Expect to be warmly welcomed at the door by a member of the Parish Council who will ask to see your proof of vaccination, as per recently changed health protocols for Places of Worship. Greeters will also orient newcomers to St Philip's, invite them to coffee, and introduce them to someone. Please help St P by greeting everyone around you.

IN-PERSON WORSHIP

You must show proof of double vaccination, wear a mask in church, and are encouraged to sanitize your hands when you enter. We continue to livestream our worship for those who, for whatever reason, are not ready or able to return in person. If you have concerns or questions, please ask to speak to Lorne or a Warden.

DEADLINE FOR THE BULLETIN

We include the Bulletin in the Order of Service. If you have information you would like included in the bulletin, please let the office have the information before NOON on Wednesdays.
