afraid?... of what?

Why would I pursue
the fear of the LORD?

And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both
soul and body in hell.

Matthew 10:28

English Standard Version

If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities,
O Lord, who could stand?
But with you there is forgiveness,
that you may be feared.

Psalm 130:3-4

English Standard Version

By steadfast love and faithfulness
iniquity is atoned for,
and by the fear of the LORD
one turns away from evil.

Proverbs 16:6

English Standard Version

...for he who is mighty has done
great things for me,
and holy is his name.
And his mercy is for those who fear him
from generation to generation.

Luke 1:49-50

English Standard Version

He who fears the face of God does not fear the face of man. He who fears the face of man does not fear the face of God.

~ Dietrich Bonhoeffer

A woman with her back to the camera, looking out over a body of water. A large bird is flying in the sky above her. The scene is slightly blurred, suggesting a focus on the text overlaid on the image.

Charm is deceitful,
and beauty is vain,
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

What is the wrong
kind of fear?

"There is no
FEAR OF GOD
Before Their Eyes"
Romans 3:18 ESV

What is the right
kind of fear?

Holy fear is the key to God's sure foundation, unlocking the treasures of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.

Along with the love of God, it composes the very foundation of life!

We will soon learn that we cannot truly love God until we fear Him, nor can we properly fear Him until we love Him.

- John Bevere

hopes in his mercy.

WILLIAM S. PLUMER

I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me.

Jeremiah 32:40

English Standard Version

In the fear of the LORD one has
strong confidence,
and his children will have a
refuge.

The fear of the LORD is a fountain
of life,
that one may turn away from
the snares of death.

Proverbs 14:26–27

English Standard Version

The fear of the Lord is a life-rearranging, joyful
awe and wonder before
the greatness of who God
is and what he has done.
