Something Worse than a Thief

An old man spread rumors that his neighbor was a thief. As a result, the young man was arrested. Days later he was proven innocent. After being released, he sued the old man for wrongly accusing him. In court, the old man told the judge, "They were just comments, they didn't harm anyone."

The judge, before passing sentence on the case, told the old man, "Write all the things you said about him on a piece of paper. Cut it up into little pieces and on the way home, throw the pieces of paper out of your car window. Tomorrow, come back to hear the sentence."

The next day, the judge told the old man, "Before receiving the sentence, I want you to go out and gather up all the pieces of paper that you threw out of your car window yesterday."

The old man said, "I can't do that! The wind spread them all over the place and I won't know where to find them."

Then the judge replied, "The same way, simple words and comments may destroy the honor of a person to such an extent that a person will not be able to fix it. If you can't speak well of someone, don't say anything at all. Let's all be masters of our mouths, so that we won't be slaves of our words."

"Gossips are worse than thieves because they steal another person's dignity, honor, reputation and credibility which are impossible to restore. So remember this: when your feet slip, you can always recover your balance but when your tongue slips, you can never recover your words!"

"Those who guard their mouths and their tongues keep themselves from calamity." ~ Proverbs 21:23

Advice About When to Speak

The Bible has much to say about both talking and listening. And many of these verses can be found in the Old Testament book of Proverbs. In this book, there are concise statements about how to live right. They're like Old Testament tweets! Here are just a few about how to use both our words and our ears:

- 1 When there are many words, sin is unavoidable, but the one who controls his lips is wise. — Proverbs 10:19
- 2 Do you see a man who speaks too soon? There is more hope for a fool than for him. — Proverbs 29:20
- 3 The one who gives an answer before he listens — this is foolishness and disgrace for him. — Proverbs 18:13
- 4 Even fools are thought wise if they keep silent, and discerning if they hold their tongues. — Proverbs 17:28

Break down these verses into foundational principles. Then come up with three warnings and one piece of advice about speaking. . . .

Don't speak too much.

Don't speak too soon.

Don't speak without first listening.

Know when to not speak at all.

Out of the same
mouth come
blessing
and

cursing

My brothers,
these things
should not be
this way

James 3:10

"Out of the overflow of the heart," said Jesus, "the mouth speaks. The good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. But I tell you that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned"

-Matthew 12:34-37.
