WILLY WONKA'S MAGIC CHEWING GUM

What does Magic Chewing Gum have to do with Engage? Nothing really. But it's a good illustration. Our kids watched Willy Wonka this week. The headstrong Violet grabs the piece of magic gum and discovers layers of flavor - tomato soup, roast beef and blueberry pie. Sometimes, we (I) grab my Bible and expect same-old, same-old. But that's not the way the Bible works or the way God works. There's ALWAYS more depth, more flavor, more to experience in its words. And so far, the result of Bible study is a deeper relationship with God the father and not turning into a blueberry as is the case with Magic Chewing Gum. :)

Our VISION TEAM met last Saturday and discussed going back to the basics of our faith. We've all been blessed by the insights we're learning just by reading one chapter of the Bible a day together in our Bible Reading Group and we're excited by how much God can do through each of us if we all commit to even just #ONE GOOD THING a week. Would you join us?

Now's the time, Engagers. ENGAGE.

We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

JOIN A BIBLE READING GROUP

Scripture is not only full of interesting stories about other people's lives, it is a way that God talks to us and leads us in our own lives. A beautiful way to come to a fuller understanding of scripture is to read it in community like a Bible Reading Group. Want to give it a shot?

How it works: You'll get a text reminder to read one chapter from the New Testament each day, Monday through Friday. Don't worry. We know life happens. No stress if you miss a day. If something pops out to you or you have a question, you can share it with the reading group. After we finish a book of the Bible, we'll either Zoom or gather in person for fellowship and recap what we each took away from the readings.

How to sign up: Email with your name and cell phone number to engagesouthkc@gmail.com.
