

Just like a wedding

In Isaiah 62 the image of a wedding is used to describe how God reestablishes the people of Israel in its country after exile.

If you manage to sort these letter tiles, you will know why.

Unwanted Christmas present or surprising sun-blocker ?

This might look like an

UNSEAWORTHY, UNWISHED-FOR DOG.

But you just have to change the order of the letters to find refuge in Psalm 36:

Today's lessons:

- Isaiah 62:1-5 God promises his people to bring back the good times, comparing their future relationship to a honeymoon with him as the groom and Israel as the bride.
- Psalm 36:5-10 Because of his love, God provides for humankind and animals, giving them all they need and much more than that.
- 1 Corinthians 12:1-11 It's not necessary that all are the same and have the same gifts: in the church different people with different gifts come together, sharing and serving one another.
- John 2:1-11 Jesus is invited at a wedding where they run out of wine. His mother wants him to do something, but Jesus seems unwilling. Yet Jesus takes action, and six large jars of water are turned into the best wine.
