A Service of the Word

This service of Morning Prayer is from a new form for Morning Prayer called “Pray Without Ceasing”. It is published by the Faith, Worship, and Ministry Committee and authorized for use by General Synod in 2019.

Land acknowledgement

As always, we will light a candle and ring a bell as our service begins.

O Lord, open our lips and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.
O God, make speed to save us.
O God, make haste to help us.

Glory to God, Source of all being, eternal Word and Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Invitatory Psalm: Psalm 95.1-7

Come, sing to the Holy One !
Shout for joy to the Rock who defends us!
Come into the Presence with thanksgiving!
Raise our voices in joyful hymns!
Truly the Holy One is a great God,
supreme above all gods,
in whose hands are the ends of the earth and the heights of all the mountains.

The sea belongs to God who made it, whose hands formed the dry land.

Come, worship and bow down;
kneel in the presence of our Creator.

Truly, truly, our God is the Holy One, whose people we are,
all in God's pasture.

Hymn 437 Kate Fitzsimmons, Lori Gooldrup

1 Jesus, come! for we invite you, Guest and Master, Friend and Lord;
now, as once at Cana's wedding, speak, and let us hear your word:
lead us through our need or doubting,
hope be born and joy restored.

2 Jesus, come! transform our pleasures, guide us into paths unknown;
bring your gifts, command your servants,
let us trust in you alone:
though your hand may work in secret,
all shall see what you have done.

3 Jesus, come in new creation, heaven brought near in power divine;
give your unexpected glory
changing water into wine:
rouse the faith of your disciples come, our first and greatest sign!

4 Jesus, come! surprise our dullness, make us willing to receive more than we can yet imagine, all the best you have to give:
let us find your hidden riches, taste your love, believe, and live!

5 Your love, O Lord, reaches to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains, your justice like the great deep; *
you save both man and beast, O Lord.

7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights.

9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.

10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, * and your favour to those who are true of heart.

God of justice and of mercy, open the eyes of sinners that they may see the light of your truth, know the power of your love, and share in the bounty of your heavenly table; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, Amen

Holy Word, Holy Wisdom.

Thanks be to God.

The Responsory

Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead.
And Christ shall give you light.

Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead.
And Christ shall give you light.

You have died and your life is hid with Christ in God.
Set your minds on things that are above,
not on things that are on the earth.

Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead.
And Christ shall give you light.

When Christ our life appears you will appear with him in glory.

Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead.
And Christ shall give you light.

Hymn 143

1 Angels from the realms of glory, wing your flight through all the earth;
heralds of creation's story
now proclaim Messiah's birth!
Come and worship, come and worship,
worship Christ, the new-born king.

2 Shepherds in the fields abiding, watching by your flocks at night,
God with us is now residing:
see, there shines the infant light!
Come and worship, come and worship,
worship Christ, the new-born king.

3 Wise men, leave your contemplations!
brighter visions shine afar;
seek in him the hope of nations,
you have seen his rising star:
Come and worship, come and worship,
worship Christ, the new-born king.

4 Saints before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear, suddenly the Lord, descending,
in his temple shall appear:
Come and worship, come and worship,
worship Christ, the newborn king.

5 Though an infant now we view him,
he will share his Father's throne, gather all the nations to him;
every knee shall then bow down:
Come and worship, come and worship,
worship Christ, the new-born king.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The sermon The Rev. David Fitzsimmons

Hear, O Israel,
the Lord our God, the Lord is one.
Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.
This is the first and the great commandment.
The second is like it: Love your neighbour as yourself.
There is no commandment greater than these.

The Lay Assistant offers additional Prayers

The Collect of the Day

Gathering our prayers and praises into one,

let us pray as our Saviour taught us,

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

your kingdom come, your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn 154

1 Joy to the world! The Lord is come:
Let earth receive the king;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
and heaven and heaven and nature sing.

2 Joy to the earth! The saviour reigns:
Let us glad songs employ,
While fields and floods, ricks, hills plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

3 No more let wrongs and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground;
he comes to make his blessings flow
Far as our sin is found,
Far as our sin is found,
Far as, far as our sin is found.

4 He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness
And wonders of his love,
And wonders of his love,
And wonders, wonders of his love.

Blessing

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Reconciliation—what does it mean for us?

Occasionally this fall and winter we have published some of the 94 Calls to Action from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Report. This has been done to help us grow in our awareness of our First Nations peoples and our responsibility.

The calls to action are readily available to read as is the progress made toward each: [Delivering on Truth and Reconciliation Commission Calls to Action \(rcaanc-cirnac.gc.ca\)](http://Delivering on Truth and Reconciliation Commission Calls to Action (rcaanc-cirnac.gc.ca))

The Anglican Church of Canada has also moved forward with a variety of steps toward reconciliation. We have apologised for residential schools (Archbishop Michael Peers) and for spiritual abuse (Archbishop Fred Hiltz). We have made archival material available without restriction. We have paid our whole, committed contribution to the settlement. We have established a self-governing Indigenous Church within the Anglican Church of Canada. We have established a healing fund used for many purposes including language restoration programs. We have much to be proud of at the national level. In years to come it will be important to build relationships with local First Nations so we can continue this work.

Beginning the New Year Safely

Do you have medications in your cabinet or drawer that you no longer use, that are past their expiry date? These old medications, whether prescription or over the counter are dangerous to keep around. For safe disposal take them to the pharmacy where you purchased them. If you are in doubt about any particular item consult your physician or pharmacist.

For Rick Monchak and members of the selection committee as we continue the process of searching for a rector.

For all who are at risk of COVID and all who are working to alleviate suffering.

For those who are cold and hungry in this city.

For those seeking healing and hope: Winn, Jill, Lyn, Marg, Bryn, Stella, Phyllis, Connie, Kelsey, Bill, William and Sheila, Isabel, Esme, Pat, Ed, Dulcey.

Prayer is an act of trust in God and an act of hope in the future. Prayer is not about getting what we wish for but about asking God to help those we love in whatever way is best for them. It is about helping us to accept God's will even if it is challenging. Jesus said, "let this cup pass from me, if it is your will."

Let the Prayer Chain know if you have a confidential prayer concern.

The parish of St Peter Anglican Church and St Saviour Anglican Church is located on the unceded, traditional territory of the Ligwi'da'xw people: the We Wai Kai, Wei Wai Kum, and Kwiakah First Nations; the unceded traditional territory of the Klahoose First Nation; the unceded traditional territory of the K'omoks First Nation and the unceded traditional territory of the Homalco First Nation. We seek a new relationship with the first peoples here; one based on honour and respect. We pray that we may live more deeply into the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.
