

FEBRUARY 2022

CHADRON CHRISTIAN CHURCH

And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him.
Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness.

From Pastor Jared;

As a teenager, I would hate not having plans with friends and staying home. If my brother and I were in the same boat, we would resort to what we call “bummin’ around”: going to WalMart, Target, seeing our grandparents, or K-Mart, when it was still alive. Our favorite place to go was the boujee WalMart - Target, which has a way of stealing a lot of my money. What we loved doing was going to the back corner where they featured respective seasonal items. It did not matter if it was Christmas, Valentine’s Day, summer patio furniture, or Halloween-themed, you could find it in the same spot every time. What was crazy about it was that you barely had a chance to catch your breath before they started preparing for the upcoming season, evidenced by Valentine’s Day candy appearing on January 2! So, what does this time of year have to do with your spiritual life?

On a recent silent retreat, I was asking God some questions to get back into alignment with Him: Who are You? Who am I? What have you called me to do? As I was listening to His reply to “Who am I?,” it hit me. A couple of months ago, He told me I was Jared, long before I was Pastor Jared. And that has been liberating! This time, He took me deeper. Long before I am even Jared, I am loved. I am Jared because I am loved! No failure could take away from this reality, no success could add to it, and no feeling of control could ever secure it. I am loved. And the same is true for you! You are loved. Period. Evidenced by Jesus living, dying, and beating death for you.

We have just completed the series, “Operator’s Manual,” learning what it is like to read different sections of Scripture. Additionally, when people are slowing-down on achieving their goals, we are ramping them up with another 35-day challenge. You may feel motivated to begin or continue reading, or excited knowing that it is not as intimidating as you had previously thought, which is awesome! But because the enemy is at work, something will happen: you will hit a wall. It happens to everybody. It may seem like what you are reading is irrelevant or that God is silent in speaking into your life. When the challenge is over and the will-power is fading, what will you have to keep you going?

During this month where candy fills shelves and love is a universal theme, we will be starting a series called “Freight Train,” where we will discover the building blocks required to create progress in the areas of life that matter most as we dig into why we lack progress in advancing towards who God’s created us to be and what He’s called us to do. Will-power and grit may be enough to get the train rolling, but dwelling in the reality that you are loved, long before you even have a name, will be the fuel that sustains it beyond these 35-days, further into the year, and throughout your life. Your “doing for God” will be a direct result of your “being with God” as you live from love, rather than for love. And a train that is rolling down the tracks at full-speed, fueled by what it needs, is virtually unstoppable.

Our church is growing and we're so excited to announce that Zane Hamilton will be joining our team as our new full-time Youth Pastor! We sat down with Zane to get to know him better:

What are your new duties as Youth Pastor?

"I will be focusing on my personal, spiritual and professional growth, Youth Ministry, C-Groups, and College Chapels."

What are you looking forward to most about your new roll?

"To grow with my relationship with God and I love knowing that my job is serving Him and the youth!"

Tell us a little bit about yourself.

"I'm from Gordon, NE. My degree is in exercise science. I love to be around people, watching movies, snowboarding, and playing spike ball! :) or any sport really."

What is a fun fact that not many people know about you?

"I was born in a swimming pool."

What makes Chadron Christian Church so special?

"What makes our church great is it's a home away from home for me."

Anything else you want our youth and their parents to know?

"The youth is our future. If we want our future to be bright, we better invest in the kids. :)"
