For Peace in the Ukraine

Liturgy of the Word

Entrance Song or Verse Below

Minister: The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction.
You will call upon me, and I will answer you,
and I will lead back your captives from every place.

The Sign of the Cross

Minister: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Minister: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Introduction

Minister: With hope in God's loving mercy and deep sorrow and concern for those who are suffering in the Ukraine because of war, we turn our hearts to the Lord, trusting that he knows our every need.

Collect

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister: God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at-risk and in fear,
that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
All: Amen.

First Reading: Micah 4:1-4

Reader: A reading from the book of the prophet Micah.

In days to come
the mountain of the Lord's house
shall be established as the highest of the mountains,
and shall be raised up above the hills.
Peoples shall stream to it,
and many nations shall come and say:
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the house of the God of Jacob;
that he may teach us his ways
and that we may walk in his paths."
For out of Zion shall go forth instruction,
and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.
He shall judge between many peoples,
and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away;
they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war any more;
but they shall sit under their own vines
and under their own fig trees,
and no one shall make them afraid;
for the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 85:8ab-9, 10-11, 12-13

Reader: The Lord speaks peace to his people.

All: The Lord speaks peace to his people.

Reader: Let me hear what God the Lord will speak,
for he will speak peace to his people.
Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him,
that his glory may dwell in our land.

All: The Lord speaks peace to his people.

Reader: Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet;
righteousness and peace will kiss each other.
Faithfulness will spring up from the ground,
and righteousness will look down from the sky.

All: The Lord speaks peace to his people.

Reader: The Lord will give what is good,
and our land will yield its increase.
Righteousness will go before him,
and will make a path for his steps.

All: The Lord speaks peace to his people.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 5:1-12a

Minister: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Minister: A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Minister: When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:
“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.
Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward is great in heaven.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Minister: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever.

Sign of Peace (optional, limited to a simple bow toward one another)
