THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Leader: As we meet today, we begin by remembering the Songhees and Esquimalt nations, on whose traditional land we now gather in gratitude. We acknowledge their story and their stewardship of the land and water, the plants, and animals, through the many generations.

As we meet today, we remember those who have called this place their home in recent years—the community of faith known as Church of the Advent. Let us greet one another with words and signs of welcome.

Opening Hymn: CP #438 “O Jesus I Have Promised” (Please Stand)

Opening Prayer:

In this time and place we gather on the ancestral lands of our First Nation companions.

From many places and peoples we come to this house in prayer.

In this time and place we gather in the name of the living God.

We meet in the presence of Jesus Christ, risen and alive.

In this time, and in this space, we gather with the community of faith around the globe and across the ages.

In this time and space heaven and earth are one.

In this time and space we are not alone, but one in Christ.

Knit together in the unity of the Spirit.

In this time and place, we are hallowed, expectant, one people in God.

In the name of the Holy and Blessed One, Creator, Redeemer and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Collect of the Day: Most Merciful God, by the death and resurrection of your son Jesus Christ, you created humanity anew. May the power of his victorious cross transform those who turn in faith to him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever, Amen. (Please be Seated)

The Creed: (Please stand if you are able for the Creed)

We believe that Jesus took the form of a servant, so we commit ourselves to serve others.

We believe that God is love, so we commit ourselves to reconciliation.

We believe that Jesus gives us his Spirit, so we commit ourselves to his work in the world.

We believe that God is the light of life, so we commit ourselves to bearing God's light to this world.

We believe that the Holy Spirit speaks through us, so we commit ourselves to proclaim the good news of God's gift of abundant life for all, in the world that God loves. Amen.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

Prayers of the People: (Please be seated for the prayers)

Confession & Absolution:

Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; welcoming of sinners and inviting us to table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Holy and gracious One: forgive our sins. The ones we can remember, and those we have forgotten. Forgive the wrong actions we have committed, and the right actions we have avoided. Forgive the times we have been weak, unkind or judgmental and failed to live out your kingdom call to justice and love. Forgive the lies we have told, the truths we have avoided and the pain we have caused others. Creator of all, have mercy on us, and make us whole.

Early Irish (adapted from A Celtic Primer p. 95)

May Almighty God, who in Jesus Christ has given us a kingdom that cannot be destroyed, forgive you your sins, open your eyes to God's truth, strengthen you to do God's will and give you the joy of his kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(from New Patterns for Worship Church of England)

The Peace:

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you!

THE SACRED MEAL IS SHARED

(Please stand if you are able for the Offertory Hymn)

Prayer over the Gifts: Eternal God, your only son suffered death upon the cross to bring the world salvation. Accept the praise and thanksgiving we offer you this day, in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord, Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord is here.

God's Spirit is with us.

Open your hearts.

We open to the fullness of God.

Feast at the banquet prepared from the foundations of the world.

We come, O Christ, in thanks and praise.

Holy and eternal One in whom we live and move and have our being our origin and our fulfillment we praise and thank you for drawing us to this sacred meal.

From the ocean of your primal love you fashioned the marvel of creation and beauty of human life. From this land of towering forests, mist laden coastlines, the rhythms of the tidal seas, storm and stillness you humble us to affirm the sacred gift of all creation and our stewardship for everything given and received.

Praise be to you, source of all life!

From the earliest days the peoples of these islands learned their dependence on your provision salmon and whale, elk and bear, and through song and ceremony, dance and painted cedar, hallowed these sacred relationships with all life.

Praise be to you, source of all life!

In Jesus Christ, you came into our world to reveal your glory, reconcile all peoples to yourself and make all things new in him. Now, gathered from many places, with a heart set on the pilgrim way we bring this bread and wine yearning for the nourishment of your Spirit and the fullness you promise in Jesus.

Praise be to you, source of all life!

Joining then with the saints of every time and place from these islands shaped by surging tides, wind and salt we raise our thankful voices in songs of unending praise.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory, Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed are you, most holy One, in Jesus: who on that night before he died took bread and gave you thanks. Jesus broke it, gave it to all gathered, and said: This is my body which is given for you. Eat this, and know I am with you to the end of the age. After supper, he took the cup, gave you thanks, and gave it to them saying: This is my blood of the new covenant. Whenever you drink it, know that I am with you to the end of the age. Therefore, God of all creation we lift this Bread of Life, and this Cup of Salvation. Send your Holy Spirit on these gifts, and upon us that we may know Jesus in the breaking of the bread and follow him in lives of selfless service and courageous love.

Praise be to you, source of all life!

In the fullness of time reconcile all things in Christ and bring us to that heavenly table where we will feast anew and every tear will be wiped away.

Blessing, praise and thanksgiving be to you, O Holy and Eternal One, Creator, Redeemer and Holy Spirit, One God, now and forever.

Praise be to you, source of all life! Alleluia!

Lord's Prayer: (sung)

The Breaking of the Bread:

We break this bread.

Communion in Christ's body once broken.

Let your Church be the wheat which bears its fruit in dying.

If we have died with him, we shall live with him; if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.

The gifts of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

The Communion:

Communion Hymn: G #486 "Deep Within" Sung by Mary Wills

(Please stand if you are able for the Prayer after Communion)

Prayer after Communion: Merciful God, you have called us to your table and fed us with the bread of life. Draw us and all your people to your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Glory to God, whose power working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God, from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

SENDING FORTH

Shared Ministry:

(Please stand if you are able)

Blessing:

Commissioning Hymn: VU #586 "We Shall Go Out with Hope of Resurrection"

We shall go out with hope of resurrection;
we shall go out, from strength to strength go on;
we shall go out and tell our stories boldly;
tales of a love that will not let us go.

We'll sing our songs of wrongs that can be righted;
we'll dream our dream of hurts that can be healed;
we'll weave a cloth of all the world united within the vision of new life who sets us free.

We'll give a voice to those who have not spoken;
we'll find the words for those whose lips are sealed;
we'll make the tunes for those who sing no longer,
expressive love alive in every heart.

We'll share our joy with those who are still weeping,
raise hymns of strength for hearts that break in grief,
we'll leap and dance the resurrection story including all in circles of our love.

Commissioning:

Go in the peace of Christ to love and serve the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

Decorating the Resurrection Cross

On Easter Sunday, we invite parishioners to bring a flower (or flowers) to the service to decorate the resurrection cross with. They can be any kind of flowers whether picked outside or purchased at the store.

Easter Saturday Holy Post-COVID Declutter

As a preparation for Easter, on Saturday, April 16th between 9 am and noon, we are holding an informal post-COVID declutter of the Narthex and Sanctuary space. We are inviting anyone who wishes to help to please come and join us. The more that show up means the faster we are done! Our hope is to do an efficient tidy up, and clear away cluttered areas that became (understandably) neglected during the pandemic. We appreciate your help!

Easter Flowers

Easter is just around the corner! As you have noticed, our little flower envelopes are out again. As you are aware, your Altar Guild receives no money for flowers except from YOU, our wonderful parishioners. We ask for your support in purchasing flowers for Easter. We are asking only for a small contribution of whatever you have in your pockets! Please help us with this special ministry. Thank you so much. -Your Altar Guild.

A Greeting from Donna

“I want to thank you for the wonderful well wishes I received on my birthday, March 27th. I was truly overwhelmed by all the love and support. The cards, flowers, mementos, and heartfelt messages were wonderful. Everything was full of colour and precious thoughts. I love you from the bottom of my heart. Donna.”

Ladies Guild Soup Project

The Ladies Guild are busy now in preparing for the monthly community lunches which are expected to resume in May.

Oh, how we can hardly wait to enjoy their tasty soups and sandwiches again!!

But to make those delicious soups, they are in need of ham, turkey, and chicken carcasses. So, we're kindly asking parishioners to spare (if they can) their carcasses and offer them to the Ladies Guild. You may bring them to the church anytime to be stored in the kitchen freezer. We would be most grateful!

“Spring Fling” Craft & Bake Sale

Perfect timing for Easter! Come to our 2022 Spring Craft & Bake Sale and purchase your Easter goodies and gifts. We will have several crafters from the community selling their handmade crafts, as well as crafts made by the What-Sew-Ever group, and of course delicious baked goods from the church.

Also, to help support the advertising of the “Spring Fling,” please grab a poster or two from the Narthex to take with you and display in the community. Help us spread the word!

Donations for the “Spring Fling”

We welcome donations of baked goods, crafts, and small gently used items for the “Spring Fling” sale (these items might be jewelry, accessories, fine china, unique collectibles - nothing too big - more like the items that would sell in an eclectic boutique setting).

We ask that baked items arrive pre-packaged. If you require plates and Ziploc bags, they are available in the parish office.
