Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday. Our Gospel reading from St. John is often called the story of “Doubting Thomas” but the passage involves so much more than the encounter with the skeptical apostle. It is rich with lessons of Christ’s mercy to all, including an encouraging word from our Lord especially for us, His modern-day disciples.

While Thomas traditionally takes all the bad rap for his doubts, we see that none of the Apostles were at their best when Christ first appeared to them after His resurrection. They were actually in hiding, cowering behind a locked door, paralyzed by fear and doubt.

But Jesus appeared right in their midst in spite of the lock on the door. Was it to rebuke them for their lack of faith? Quite the contrary.

He comes on a mission of mercy. He comes to offer them peace and the restoration of their relationship with Him. And even more, He commissions them to become ministers of His mercy, by giving them authority to forgive sins. At that moment Christ gives to all of us the supreme gift of mercy — the sacrament of Reconciliation. What a precious and powerful gift!

This Sunday is a perfect time to reflect on how well we make use of this gift. Do we really appreciate its healing power? Could we become better stewards of this gift by going to Confession more often? We must also reflect on how well we extend mercy to others as Jesus did to Thomas that day.

Let’s commit ourselves to becoming faithful disciples and stewards of Christ’s mercy. We will be those very ones to whom Jesus gave a “shout out” during His encounter with Thomas: “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” — in His merciful love.

— Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship Consultants

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. There are extraordinary graces to be had on this day: “complete forgiveness of sins and punishment” (the equivalent of a plenary indulgence). The only conditions to receive these graces are to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy. By these conditions, our Lord is emphasizing the value of confession and Holy Communion as miracles of mercy. The Eucharist is Jesus, Himself, the Living God, longing to pour Himself as Mercy into our hearts.

There is a special celebration (Eucharistic Adoration and Prayer) of Divine Mercy at 3 pm today. You do not have to go to confession on Mercy Sunday itself (and in fact we are unable to provide confessions on Sunday this year). All of Lent should have been a preparation, and hopefully you made a good confession in Lent.

Eucharistic Holy Hour for Divine Mercy Sunday with Archbishop Naumann, Sunday, April 24, 6:15 pm, St. James Academy, Lenexa. Join us to pray especially for healing and hope for our country and those who have been affected by an abortion, as well as peace in the world.
