To the Members the Diocese of Athabasca, regarding “Just Imagine” Webinar Series.

Dear Beloved Images of God:

Well, that was interesting.

I knew three others (including my wife), had really only met two others that morning, and met the seventh person at our dinner church.

We came together. We said grace, had a meal, got to know each other. Our host and hostess had decided we could look at the Lord’s Prayer – so we sang, together, three different versions of it. We discussed it a little bit. We prayed for each other and for people close on our hearts. We had an extremely delicious meal, which everyone contributed to, and had very good fellowship. And then, quite late, we all left (to my chagrin, we left a whole lot of dirty dishes behind too! Shall have to be better on that part next time, oops).

The most interesting thing was – it didn’t feel weird. It actually felt quite natural – genuine even. No one made someone else uncomfortable. No one stormed out. No one felt put-upon or accosted. It was just a group of people becoming friends, sitting down with Jesus in the room.

It almost made it seem like that is the way things are supposed to be.

I wonder what the next “Just Imagine” Webinar will expose us to?

Let’s get together with the Rev. Dr. Judy Paulsen on May 18 at 7 pm, and find out – how to be the church, like Jesus wants us to be. Come one, come all! ☺
