

Proverbs 31:10-31 Sermon Discussion Questions

Discussion Supplement to May 7-8, 2022 Sermon

- 1) Have the group share a favorite character trait or story about their mom (or significant female figure in their life).

- 2) Read Proverbs 31:10-31.
  - a. What stands out about this description of the woman of noble character?
  - b. What parts of this description fit your expectation of "what you would expect the Bible to say about a good woman"? What is surprising about this description?
  - c. What do you find most inspiring?

- 3) "Service" (of spouse, family and community) is a primary feature of the valiant woman's character. This same character trait is evident in Christ (Philippians 2:5-11). How is the value of service being demonstrated in your life these days? How might Jesus be commending your service? How might he be calling you to step-up your service game?

- 4) Aside from Mother's Day (or other "official" days like National Daughter's Day) how have you been honoring the valiant women in your life? (see verses 28-31). Are there any valiant women you know of (perhaps those who are alone or who lack family/connection) who could use some encouragement from you or your group?
