We are happy and honoured that you’ve joined us this morning—whether in-person or online via Facebook and the parish website. If you need a place to take a break with your child, a nursery area is available. Washrooms are available on the main level of the church. Please ask a sidesperson or your neighbour if you have questions or need assistance. You’re warmly invited to join us for refreshments in the parish hall following the service.

– THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY –

Prelude Sonata in E flat Major

Welcome

Processional Hymn CP 205 – “The Day of Resurrection”

Acknowledgement

Celebrant We begin by acknowledging that we live, work, play, and worship on the traditional and unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples including the xʷməθkw̓ay̓ əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) and Səl̓ílwətaʔ (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations.

All May our words and our actions reflect our awareness and appreciation of this.

A moment of silence for reflection is kept.
Celebrant  The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

People  And also with you.

Hymn of Praise  CP 371 – “To God Be the Glory”

Collect of the Day

Celebrant  Almighty God, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven. Mercifully give us faith to know that, as he promised, he abides with us on earth to the end of time; who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All  Amen.

– THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD –

First Reading  Acts 16:16-34

One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave-girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling. While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, ‘These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation.’ She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, ‘I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.’ And it came out that very hour.

But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market-place before the authorities. When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, ‘These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe. ‘The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone’s chains were unfastened. When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted in a loud voice, ‘Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.’ The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them outside and said, ‘Sirs, what must I do to be saved?’ They answered, ‘Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.’ They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.”

Psalm 97  Read responsively, BAS p. 835

Second Reading  Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20-21

‘See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone’s work. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.’

Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates. It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.’
The Spirit and the bride say, ‘Come.’ And let everyone who hears say, ‘Come.’ And let everyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift. The one who testifies to these things says, ‘Surely I am coming soon.’ Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.’

The Holy Gospel  John 17:20-26

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
All  And also with you.
Celebrant  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
All  Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

‘I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.
‘Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.”

Celebrant  The Gospel of Christ.
People  Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
The Nicene Creed

Celebrant  Let us confess our faith, as we say,
All  We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
Thanksgiving for Baptism

The assembly stands as they are able. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Celebrant  Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✱ one God,
People    the fountain of living water,
Celebrant  the rock who gave us birth,
People    our light and our salvation.
All       Amen.

The presiding minister addresses the assembly.

    Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism,
    we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness.
    Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

Water is poured into the font as the presiding minister gives thanks.

    We give you thanks, O God,
    for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.

    Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.
Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom.
At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.
By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons,
    [all your children], making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.

    We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life,
    and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ.
Shower us with your Spirit, and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.

To you be given honour and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Amen.

Together, the people and clergy say the Scripture of the week:

“For I, the LORD your God, hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, ‘Fear not, I am the one who helps you.’” – Isaiah 41:13

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Offertory Hymn CP 631 – “The Kingdom of God is Justice and Joy”

Prayer over the Gifts

Source of all joy, receive our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Keep us in the love of Christ and bring us to the vision of his glory; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant  The Lord be with you
All        And also with you.

Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
All        We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All        It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant  Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; we give you thanks and praise for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true paschal lamb who has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us eternal life. Therefore, joining our voices with the whole company of heaven, we sing our joyful hymn of praise to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus (all sing)

\[\text{Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,}\]

\[\text{heaven and earth are full of your glory. Ho-}\]
Celebrant We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Gracious God, your Son’s perfect sacrifice destroys the power of sin and death; by raising him to life you give us life for evermore. Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith.

People:

and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation;

by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant  As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All  Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant  Lord, we died with you on the cross.

All  Now we are raised to new life.

Celebrant  We were buried in your tomb.

All  Now we share in your resurrection.

Celebrant  The gifts of God for the People of God,

All  Thanks be to God.

The Communion  CP 64 – “Author of Life Divine”

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant  Let us pray.

All  Eternal God, may we who share Christ's banquet be one with him as he is one with you. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, the risen and ascended Lord. Amen.
Parish Announcements  Given by the Churchwardens

Doxology

Celebrant  Glory to God,

All  whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Benediction

Celebrant  May the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever.

All  Amen.

Recessional Hymn  CP 224 – “Awake, Arise, Lift Up Your Voice”

Dismissal  The celebrant dismisses the people, saying,

Celebrant  Alleluia! Christ is risen!

People  He is risen indeed! Alleluia, alleluia!

PRAYER LIST
Please pray for those who have asked for our prayers at this time: Vivien, Douglas Bruce, Meghan, Ann Ringgold, Billie, Brenda, Nassrin, Greg, Peralea and Ignacio. Let us pray for those who have died recently, especially Nancy Oberdrof. Please pray for all those mourning losses at this time.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR
The flowers at the altar are given to the glory of God by Margot Rocksborough-Smith in fond memory of her brother Brian Rocksborough-Smith (life-long parishioner at St. James).
The flowers at the font are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Avril Abakhan from her sons, Andrew and Gregory.
If anyone would like to make a donation towards the church flowers in thanksgiving of a Birthday, Anniversary, or In Memory of a loved one, please contact the office at 604-224-3238.  All donations are most appreciated.

“THANK YOU and God Bless You!” from Reverend Lorne
Dear friends in Christ, thank you so very much for your cards, letters, and notes of encouragement, gratitude, and care this past Easter Sunday. I’ve just opened these notes of generosity today (Friday) as I’d returned to my duties Thursday—I was moved to tears as I opened one message after another of your observations, hopes, and dreams for St. Philip’s. I’m grateful, too, to our Wardens and Trustees for coordinating this expression of care, love, and chocolate!
I earnestly pray that we will continue to grow together in faith, hope, and love, and that St. Philips’ future is one of ministry, witness, and service to our community and to the community beyond our walls. God richly bless you this Easter season and grant you a restful and re-creative summer!
HELP FEED OUR NEIGHBOURS - COMMUNITY FOOD PROGRAM - MATCHING GRANT ENDS MAY 31!
Each week St. Augustine’s Anglican Church in Marpole hosts a community Food Hub and a weekly Community Meal. The Food Hub provides food to over 300 people weekly and the Community Meal provides bagged lunches and hot meals for 45-50 guests. The Neighbourhood Ministry Mobile Care Unit operates bi-weekly at the Community Meal to provide additional support.
In addition to the support they receive from other organisations, they need to raise around $40,000 annually to fund the program. St. Augustine’s has a donor who has generously agreed to match all donations up to $20,000. Your gift of $25, $50, $100 or even $1000 will help feed our neighbours in Marpole. What a gift - but the matching grant ends on May 31st and they still have more to raise. Please consider making a donation today through Canada Helps: https://www.canadahelps.org/en/dn/48584 and write Food Program in the message field.

"High Spirits Choir - Together Again": Sunday June 5th, 3:30 pm.
This community choir has been singing an eclectic repertoire of classical, jazz, gospel and more, for over 25 years. They are pleased to return to live performance with their first concert at St. Philip's. Tickets at Eventbrite. Livestream tickets also available: https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/high-spirits-together-again-tickets-341264410037

ROYAL JUBILEE PROMS CONCERT Sun May 29, 4 PM
Join us in this brass, choir & organ concert celebrating the 70-year reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Dress up for this community celebration of rousing British music from Handel to Vaughan Williams and Elgar. Invite your friends and come prepared to sing! Please wear a mask. Donations at the door go to St Philip’s Organ Fund. Royal Jubilee Proms Concert Please stay for the reception afterwards.

NEIGHBOURHOOD MINISTRY: Thank you parishioners of St Philip’s from the Neighbourhood Ministry! Once a month we at St Philip’s fill 15-20 Ziplock bags full of non-perishable food and socks. All of this food is donated by parishioners which means that we never need to shop for groceries. We also receive donations of seasonal clothing, camping supplies and McDonald’s gift cards, all of which are appreciated.
In addition, we have many dedicated indoor and outdoor team volunteers.
This month, on May 14, Joanne, Suzi and Sophia were the outdoor team. Sophia and Nora prepared the packages, Katie made the sandwiches, and Joanne provided the eggs and fruit. It was a successful outing.
In addition to the regulars, they met two new men. They told them about our Ministry and the fact that our volunteers always go out on Saturday mornings. Over time new people become regulars who trust that we will always show up. Unfortunately, one of our regulars had just had all of his belongings stolen; sadly this is not an infrequent occurrence. Fortunately, the out team was well stocked so we were able to provide him with plenty of camping supplies and clothing.
