Moving Forward

Changes to pandemic protocols

On Tuesday, June 1st, our Diocese moved to the Green stage rules of our pandemic plan. What this means for our Parish is that masking will be optional in all spaces.

Please follow your own level of comfort, and also respect the comfort level of others.

Rev. Matthew Brown will be away from the parish from Monday May 30th, returning Monday June 20th. In case of pastoral emergencies, for Pembroke, Petawawa, Alice and Beachburg please contact Rev. Rick Durrett (613-720-5710); for Eganville, Killaloe and Tramore please contact Canon John Wilker-Blakley (613-291-4543); for Barry's Bay and Whitney please contact Bishop Michael Bird (613-401-8976); and for Stafford, Micksburg, Rankin and Cobden please contact either Bishop Michael or Rev. Rick. The members of your clergy team will ensure that either they or another team member responds in a timely manner.

Bishop Shane Parker will visit the Parish of the Valley on Trinity Sunday, June 12th: 10am at Holy Trinity Pembroke (commissioning of Lay Readers) and 2pm at All Saints Petawawa (bell rededication). All are welcome to attend both services. There will be no service on June 12th at St. George's South Alice. All other services across the parish will continue per our usual schedule.

Our next Food Bank Sunday is June 12th. Please bring contributions of non-perishable foods and monetary gifts to worship on that day in support of our local food banks across Renfrew County.

The deadline for submissions for the summer issue of our parish's quarterly newspaper, Revelations, is Saturday June 11th. Please send news, updates and reflections from your congregation to Jean Ostrom,

Wings of Hope Ukrainian Fundraiser

St. George's South Alice along with the wonderful support from the Parish of the Valley and the community have reached our goal of $6000. Our barbecues raised $4350 and several generous donations brought us to our goal. This will pay for a Ukrainian family of 4 to travel to the safety of Canada. We will continue to fundraise until June 30th. If your group would like to fundraise and need some assistance please contact Wanda Hilts by calling or texting 613-735-4240 or hiltsw@hotmail.com
We have several volunteers available to help plan or implement your event.
