Hymn: Here Comes the Sun

Opening Words....

Friends, it certainly was in many places a long cold, lonely winter. Sometimes this is a winter of place; sometimes of soul.

Let us worship in hope of the coming Son.

It is time for the smiles to return to our faces.

Let us worship in joy for the coming Son.

It is time for the ice of our doubts, our fears, our hopelessness to melt away.

Let us worship in the warmth of the Son who is here among us.

(adapted from "Beatles Music Worship" West Suffield Congregational Church)

We pray....

Holy and majestic God on mountaintops crowned with mist and in museums filled with wonder;

in tents pitched by singing brooks and in theatres filled with laughing children;

in music both secular and sacred,

you are with us, hearing us, answering us, and we do not lose heart.

May we be uplifted in the songs we hear and sing in this time together knowing you are the source of all creativity, including the creativity of those who composed these songs.

Bless us with your presence, O God, sharing in our joyful worship of you. Amen.
