BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

The Assembly of the Territory of the People gathered in 2022 give thanks to:

- The local arrangements committee for their hospitality and attention to the logistics which have ensured the success of this gathering
- The Kitchen crew of St. Paul's Cathedral who provided such excellent nourishment for our bodies
- The Worship Committee who provided inspirational worship and nourishment for our souls
- Nominating Committee of Cathy Wozlowski and John Boyd, the Scrutineers Alexis Saunders and Nina Sidorczuk for their work on the elections
- Melissa Green who fulfilled the position of registrar, technical assistant and recording secretary on Sunday morning
- The Resolutions Committee: Bruce Chalmers and his team for providing clear and concise resolutions
- The Indigenous community for their participation, leadership, drumming, song and prayer
- The Very Rev Ken Gray for his musical leadership on Friday, and photographic skills in preserving this occasion (Assembly photo)
- Margaret Mitchell, Assembly preparations and Recording Secretary
- Assisting Bishop Jane Alexander for her enthusiasm, humour, care and guidance to the People of the Territory
- Archbishop Lynne McNaughton, Metropolitan, Ecclesiastical Province of British Columbia and Yukon, for her leadership, guidance and encouraging presence amongst us
- The Rt Rev Mary Irwin Gibson of the Diocese of Montreal for her video greeting to this Assembly
- All the unsung heroes whose quiet work behind the scenes has ensured the success of this outstanding Assembly as we gathered this weekend to "Come and See"
