Sermon

The Rev. Adam Dawkins

Music for Reflection To God, in whom I Trust

To God, in whom I trust, I lift my heart and my voice;
O let me not be put to shame, nor let my foes rejoice.
His mercy and his truth the righteous Lord displays
In bringing wand'ring sinners home and teaching them his ways.
Thy mercies and thy love, O Lord, recall to mind;
And graciously continue still as thou wert, ever kind.

The Apostle's Creed

Presider

Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider

Blessed are you, O God, maker of all things.

All

Through your goodness
you have blessed us with these gifts:
our selves, our time and our possessions.
Use us, and what we have gathered,
in feeding the world with your love,
through the one who gave himself for us,
Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right to give you thanks and praise,
O Lord, our God, sustainer of the universe,
you are worthy of glory and praise.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant At your command all things came to be:
 the vast expanse of interstellar space,
 galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses,
 and this fragile earth, our island home;
 by your will they were created and have their being.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant From the primal elements
 you brought forth the human race,
 and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill;
 you made us the stewards of creation.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant But we turn against you, and betray your trust;
 and we turn against one another.
 Again and again you call us to return.
 Through the prophets and sages
 you reveal your righteous law.

In the fullness of time you sent your Son,
 born of a woman, to be our Saviour.

He was wounded for our transgressions,
 and bruised for our iniquities.

By his death he opened to us
 the way of freedom and peace.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant Therefore we praise you,
 joining with the heavenly chorus,
 with prophets, apostles, and martyrs,
 and with those in every generation
 who have looked to you in hope,
 to proclaim with them your glory,
 in their unending hymn:

Celebrant Blessed are you, Lord our God,
 for sending us Jesus, the Christ, who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death,
 took bread, said the blessing,
 broke the bread, gave it to his friends,
 and said, "Take this, and eat it:
 this is my body which is given for you.
 Do this for the remembrance of me."

In the same way, after supper,
 he took the cup of wine;
 he gave you thanks,
 and said, "Drink this, all of you:
 this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many
 for the forgiveness of sins.
 Whenever you drink it,
 do this for the remembrance of me."

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant Gracious God,
 we recall the death of your Son Jesus Christ,
 we proclaim his resurrection and ascension,
 and we look with expectation for his coming as Lord of all the nations.
 We who have been redeemed by him,
 and made a new people by water and the Spirit,
 now bring you these gifts.
 Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this offering of your Church, that we who eat and drink at this holy table
 may share the divine life of Christ our Lord.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

I
Glo - ry to You for e - ver and e - ver!

II
Glo - ry to You for e - ver and e - ver!

III
Glo - ry to You for e - ver and e - ver!

Celebrant Pour out your Spirit upon the whole earth
and make it your new creation.
Gather your Church together
from the ends of the earth into your kingdom, where peace and justice are revealed,
that we, with all your people,
of every language, race, and nation,
may share the banquet you have promised;

through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ,
all honour and glory are yours,
creator of all.

People Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.

I
Glo - ry to You for e - ver and e - ver!
A - - men!

II
Glo - ry to You for e - ver and e - ver!
A - - men!

Glo - ry to You for e - ver and e - ver!
A - - men!

The Lord's Prayer

Presider

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider

Creator of all,
you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All

So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth
into your kingdom.

Presider

The gifts of God for the people of God.

All

Thanks be to God.

Share the Gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion.

While the communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence —this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.

Healing Prayer is offered at the 10:30am Sunday Eucharist. Because of the close proximity of the prayer team members and the person requesting prayer, you are asked to wear a mask. Prayer teams will be located in the west alcove. Please make your way up the ramp to the alcove after you have received communion, and present your prayer request to the team members. If you are not receiving Healing Prayer, you are asked to refrain from entering the Alcove at this time, in order to safeguard privacy.

Closing Hymn

King of Glory, King of Peace

1 King of glo - ry, King of peace, I will love thee;
2 Where - fore with my ut - most art, I will sing thee;
3 Seven whole days, not one in seven, I will praise thee;

and that love may nev - er cease, I will move thee.
and the cream of all my heart, I will bring thee.
in my heart, though not in heaven, I can raise thee.

Thou hast grant - ed my re - quest, thou hast heard me;
Though my sins a - gainst me cried, thou didst clear me;
Small it is in this poor sort to en - roll thee;

thou didst note my work - ing breast, thou hast spared me.

Music Notes : Two major composers from across the border

Ned Rorem

Born 1925 (97 years old) (from a short biography by Boosey & Hawkes, publishers)

At the age of 17, Ned Rorem entered the Music School of Northwestern University. Two years later he received a scholarship to the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. He studied composition under Bernard Wagenaar at Juilliard, where he earned both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees.

Ned Rorem has been the recipient of a Fulbright Fellowship (1951), a Guggenheim Fellowship (1957), and an award from the National Institute of Arts and Letters (1968). He received the ASCAP-Deems Taylor Award in 1971 for his book Critical Affairs, A Composer's Journal, in 1975 for The Final Diary, and in 1992 for an article on American opera in Opera News. His suite Air Music won the 1976 Pulitzer Prize in music. The Atlanta Symphony recording of the String Symphony, Sunday Morning, and Eagles received a Grammy Award for Outstanding Orchestral Recording in 1989. In 1998 he was chosen Composer of the Year by Musical America. He served as President of the American Academy of Arts and Letters from 2000-2003. In 2001 he was named a Chevalier de l'Ordre des Arts et Des Lettres by France for his contribution to the enrichment of the French cultural inheritance. In 2003 he was awarded the Gold Medal in Music, for an entire body of work, by the Academy of Arts and Letters; and also received ASCAP's Lifetime Achievement Award. He has received numerous honorary degrees.

Words and music are inextricably linked for Ned Rorem. Time magazine has called him "the world's best composer of art songs," yet his musical and literary ventures extend far beyond this specialized field. Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and a Grammy, Rorem has composed three symphonies, four piano concertos, and an array of other orchestral works; music for numerous combinations of chamber forces; ten operas; choral works of every description; ballets and other music for the theater; and literally hundreds of songs and cycles. He is the author of sixteen books, including five volumes of diaries and collections of lectures and criticism.

Alice Parker

Born 1925 (97 years old)

Alice Parker has composed over 500 pieces of music, including operas, song cycles, cantatas, choral suites, and anthems. She began her studies at Smith College, graduating in 1947 with a double major in organ and composition. She went on to study choral conducting at Juilliard, then became a teacher while also collaborating with Robert Shaw on arrangements of materials to be recorded by the Robert Shaw Chorale, formed in 1948. Parker went on to become the primary arranger for the Robert Shaw Chorale for 20 years. On December 29, 1947, Alice was featured on the cover of Newsweek alongside other singers. The chorale disbanded in 1965.

In 1954, she married Thomas Pyle, a member of the Robert Shaw Chorale. They had five children. Pyle died unexpectedly in 1976, leaving Alice to care for their five children. She then moved to western Massachusetts, and, in 1985 founded The Musicians of Melodious Accord, a professional chorus that not only released fourteen albums, but helped bring young mid-career musicians from all over the world to study with Parker.

Having served on the Board of Directors of Chorus America, she became their first Director Laureate. Parker has received numerous awards, including the Distinguished Composer of the Year 2000 by the American Guild of Organists, the 2014 Brock Commission, from the American Choral Directors Association, the Harvard Glee Club Foundation Medal in 2015, plus six honorary doctorates and the Smith College Medal. Also a Fellow of the Hymn Society of the US and Canada, she has been awarded grants from ASCAP, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Aaron Copland Fund for Music, and the American Music Center. Most recently she was honoured by the International Emily Dickinson Society for her choral suite Heavenly Hurt.

To celebrate Parker's 90th birthday in 2015, choral groups worldwide posted performances of her work on YouTube, as part of a project called Alice Is 90. The 2020 documentary: At Home With Alice Parker by Eduardo Montes-Bradley, explores the life and works of Parker. It was filmed over the winter of 2020 at her residence in Hawley and in New York City.
