Welcome & Announcements

Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Question 42: Which is the first commandment?

Answer: The first commandment is, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Q 43. What is required in the first commandment? Answer: The first commandment requires us to know (1 Chronicles 28:9) and acknowledge God to be the only true God, and our God, (Deuteronomy 26:17) and to worship and glorify him accordingly. (Matthew 4:10)

1 Chronicles 28:9 "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever. Matthew 4:10 Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

"This chapter began with David's followers looking like little more than a rabble. But by the end of the chapter God had summoned David to embrace the kingship and provided him with both a priest and a prophet. These represent our great need: to be defended by a mighty King, reconciled to God's favor by an atoning Priest, and instructed into faith and salvation by a true Prophet. This is the refuge of God's people in this world: the kingly reign of God's mighty Son, the priestly ministry of Christ's sin-atoning blood, and the prophetic ministry of the Holy Scriptures. To join Jesus through faith is to unite under the banner of great David's greater Son, to whom God the Father declares: "Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession" (Ps. 2:8)." ~ Richard Phillips (RE Commentary).
