Welcome!

We have a wonderful and diverse collection of spiritual practices to explore this fall. From contemplation to pilgrimage, from interfaith dialogue to creative journaling. There is something here for you and your family and friends. This fall, as the season changes around you, take time to nourish your heart. Ground yourself in the love and peace that God gives to us through Christ. And know that you are God's Beloved Child, part of God's Great Family.

The Reverend David Taylor is the Rector of the Parish of St. Dunstan. His passion is to re-connect people to the Scripture as well as the depth and breadth of Christian spiritual practice.

The Reverend Lorie Martin is the Associate Director of the Centre for Spiritual Renewal. She is currently serving at the Parish of St. Andrew as Curate. Lorie is a spiritual director and has a passion for sacred spaces, gathering together, and opening to God's loving presence.

All who desire to follow Christ and grow more in the image of God are welcome.

All who are on a spiritual journey are welcome.

All who are curious are welcome.

All who are tired and need rest are welcome.

All are welcome.

A Pilgrim Way

Saturday, September 17
1pm to 7, In Person

 click here

With the Reverend Alecia Greenfield

An introduction to pilgrimage: a walking practice that transforms self-awareness, awareness of the place we live and awareness of God. This particular pilgrimage is 13 Km (approx. 3 hours) and is designed to refurbish our respect for delight in and engagement with creation. We begin with a few light stretches, walk & weave our way on our “camino trail” and end with the Eucharist, dinner, and pilgrimage tales of the travel day.

This event is part of a series with local pilgrimages across the Ecclesial Province of BC and Yukon in the Season of Creation.

We will collect money for the PWDRF fire & flood funds.

Listening Prayer Café

Compassionate Listening

as a spiritual practice

An online 10-week series.

With Cathy Merchant

Thursdays, September 22 to November 24 7pm to 9

Compassionate Listening is a heart-based conflict resolution method that helps people connect with others and work through interpersonal conflict in a soul-opening way.

In this series, we will learn and engage with the Five Core Practices of Compassionate Listening alongside core teachings from 10 different faith traditions.

This will be an interactive workshop, so please come prepared to both listen and share authentically.

Each week, we will cover a different aspect of Compassionate Listening in conjunction with a different faith tradition. The schedule will be, as follows:

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| 1. Indigenous | Being with the Self in Presence |
| 2. Judaism | Working with Triggers |
| 3. Buddhism | From Drama to the Empowerment Triangle |
| 4. Christianity | Three-Part Listening |
| 5. Sikhism | Deepening Inquiry |
| 6. Hinduism | The Truth Box |
| 7. Neopaganism | Bridges That Connect |
| 8. Baha'i Faith | Widening Circles |
| 9. Humanism | The Science of Compassion |
| 10. Islam | From Debate to Speaking from the Heart |

Cathy is the Interfaith Leader of the Living Interfaith Sanctuary and the Minister of Community Life at Canadian Memorial United Church, both in Vancouver, BC. She is an ordained Interfaith minister and has been teaching Compassionate Listening in North America and in Israel and Palestine since 2009.

Friday, October 21 1pm to 3:30
Saturday, October 22 10am to 12:30

Please join us for one or two days. Each class is a "stand alone" so you can pick and choose. Supplies will be available unless you have your own. Building a habit of creativity is a valued practice in the art world. One thing that helps us kickstart our creativity is simple play. Drop your guard, be free, and create, no judgement, just process. Tap into your imagination and daydream, create something silly or out of the ordinary.

Friday, October 21 What is Creativity?

Saturday, October 22 Creative Books

Supply lists can be found at ST-DUNSTANS.CA

Registration: $40 $20 $10 $0

Journals can be purchased from Kathie for $20

Enneagram Workshop click here

Subtypes – 3 instinctual patterns of being

Saturday, November 19 9am to 4

with Rebecca Horch

Behind our personality lies primal instincts and patterns of how we function in this world at a foundational level. In enneagram terms, we call these patterns “subtypes.” Different from Enneagram type structure, subtypes offer us wisdom on the 3 instinctual, and often unconscious, ways we tend to orient to the environment around us in order to keep ourselves alive and safe. The subtypes: sexual, social, and self preservation are “stacked” in order of innate importance for our basic human needs and values. They are truly the unconscious drivers of much of our decision making in this world.

In this workshop, we will grow a deeper understanding of instinctual subtypes, recognizing how they show up in our every day lives and relationships.

Spiritual Care through the Centre

We want to support you in your journey with Christ. If you have a spiritual need, please connect with us in these ways.

the Rite of Reconciliation

Popularly known as Confession, the Rite of Reconciliation is a spiritual practice of sharing with a priest the things in your life that are troubling you. Reconciliation is about getting it all out. Sharing your anxiety, your anger, your energy levels, your whole heart. The priest leads you through a brief liturgy and offers words of comfort and the absolution you need to move forward. Connect with David at dmatthew.taylor@gmail.com to schedule an appointment.

Listening Prayer

The practice of Listening Prayer is like a guided meditation where you share your life in the confidence of two others who support you as you connect with God. Listening Prayer is a great practice to deepen into the spiritual healing begun through the Rite of Reconciliation, or can be experienced apart from it. For more information and to make an appointment, connect with Lesley Wieler at lesleywieler@gmail.com.

Spiritual Direction

We all need companions on the journey. A spiritual director is someone who walks with you for an extended period of time to continue your inner work of healing. At the Parish, we have access to skilled directors with a breadth of experience. To learn more about how a spiritual director can help you on your journey, please connect with Katherine Murray at katherine.murray22@gmail.com.

We're on this spiritual journey together, with Jesus.
