10:15 AM: Morning Prayer

Liturgy from “The Book of Alternative Services”

Hymns from “Common Praise”

Processional Hymn 384 “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty” vv. 1-4 (Lobe den Herren)

Dear friends in Christ, as we prepare to worship almighty God, let us with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins, that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy upon us, pardon and deliver us from all our sins, confirm and strengthen us in all goodness, and keep us in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord, open our lips,
And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

O God, make speed to save us,
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Venite: Psalm 95.1-7

Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great king above all gods.

In his hand are the caverns of the earth, and the heights of the hills are his also.

The sea is his for he made it, and his hands have moulded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

Jubilate Psalm 100

Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands; serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

Know this: The Lord himself is God; he himself has made us, and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise; give thanks to him and call upon his name.

For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his faithfulness endures from age to age.

1st Reading: Amos 8:1-12

Andrew Keeping

This is what the Lord God showed me - a basket of summer fruit. He said, "Amos, what do you see?"

And I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then the Lord said to me, "The end has come upon my people Israel; I will never again pass them by. The songs of the temple shall become wailings in that day," says the Lord God; "the dead bodies shall be many, cast out in every place. Be silent!"

Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, "When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practise deceit with false balances, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat."

The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds. Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who lives in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt? On that day, says the Lord God, I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight. I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

The time is surely coming, says the Lord God, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the Lord, but they shall not find it.

Psalm 52

Angela Wards

Refrain: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

You tyrant, why do you boast of wickedness against the godly all day long? You plot ruin; your tongue is like a sharpened razor, O worker of deception. Refrain

You love evil more than good and lying more than speaking the truth. You love all words that hurt, O you deceitful tongue. Refrain

Oh, that God would demolish you utterly, topple you, and snatch you from your dwelling, and root you out of the land of the living! Refrain

The righteous shall see and tremble, and they shall laugh at him, saying, "This is the one who did not take God for a refuge, but trusted in great wealth and relied upon wickedness." Refrain

But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever. I will give you thanks for what you have done and declare the goodness of your Name in the presence of the godly. Refrain

2nd Reading: Colossians 1:15-28

Margaret Klarholm

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven.

I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel. I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints.

To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

Gradual Hymn 560 "God, Whose Almighty Word" (Moscow)

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Luke 10:38-42

The Rev. Marcus Herrel

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying.

But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me."

But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Marcus Herrel

Offering Hymn 434 “The Love of Jesus Calls Us”

(Aurelia)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Intercessions

Angela Wards

We pray for our Diocese: St. George-in-the-Pines, Banff: The Rev. Howard Thornton, The Rev. Seth Enriquez, The Rev. Deacon Sean Krausert, The Rev. Canon Dr. Richard LeSueur; The Lambeth Conference

We pray for members of our parish family: George and Del Stephen; Lisa Stephen and Jeremy Brown; Lori Stephen, Les, Emma, and Dana.

We pray for those in need of God’s healing gifts: Lisa, Gladys, Coby, Jim, Karen, Joan, Joy, Jennifer, Carol, Luke and family, Warwick and Sue, Eva, Doreen, Mark, Len, Sharon, James and Susan, Gwyneth, Gail, Marie, Jill, Kris, Jeff and family, Don, Marian, Pat and Tom, Andy.

We pray for the recently departed, in particular, Roy and for his family. Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence in your loving care, that casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love.

The Collect of the Day: Almighty God, your Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence. Give us pure hearts and constant wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Please refrain from touching others - exchange greetings verbally instead.

And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all, now and evermore. Amen

The Wednesday Eucharist service will resume on August 10 at noon. The Midweek Prayer Group will resume on September 7 at 10:00 AM. To provide our technical arts team with a well-deserved break, the services from July 24 through August 28 will not be livestreamed; livestreaming will resume on September 4.

Kersi returns from vacation on Sunday, July 24. Arrangements have been made for emergency pastoral coverage – please contact the office. Gloria is also on vacation, returning to the office on Tuesday, July 26.

Our annual Stampede breakfast returns on Sunday, July 17 with assistance from 6th Calgary St. Barnabas Scouts, following the 10:15 AM service.

Sadly, we say good-bye to our dear friends Wally and Sheila Driol who will soon begin worshipping at St. Paul’s Anglican Church which is much nearer to their home than St. Barnabas is. We wish them all the best and thank them for their friendship and their dedication in maintaining our facilities throughout the years. You will be missed - stay in touch!

Pastoral Care Ministry – would you like to receive training as a pastoral care volunteer? St. Barnabas will be forming a pastoral care team in the fall to administer home communion and pastoral visits. Speak to Kersi for more information.

A confirmation class will start in September – please let Kersi know if you would like to participate.

Save the date: an evening with Saint Barnabas on Saturday, September 24. Details to follow!
