Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

In today's passage perhaps we are disturbed by David's attitude toward Nabal's death, I mean, are we not Christians? Yet, we must remember as John Woodhouse points out that the insult was not just against David the Man: "There is no suggestion here that David's attitude was wrong. True, he needed the correction of Abigail's words earlier, but now we hear the words of David after he had learned his lesson. This is one of those moments where we must be reminded that Bible narratives are not simply moral tales. We must remember here that David was God's king" (J. Woodhouse, Preaching the Word). David was but a shadow of the King of Kings, Christ Jesus the Lord. Do we refuse to acknowledge and yield to Him, to identify with His atonement, and keep His commands as servants of the true God? When we are in Christ God will champion our cause, because His will is our cause. ~ Pastor Michael
