Opening Hymn

The Eternal Gifts of Christ the King

Unison

1 The e-ter - nal gifts of Christ the King,
the a - pos - tles' glo - ry, let us sing;
and all, with hearts of glad - ness, raise due hymns of thank - ful love and praise.

2 For they the church's leaders are,
triumphant in her peaceful war,
in heavenly courts a princely band,
true lights to lighten every land.

3 Theirs is the steadfast faith of saints,
unconquered hope that never faints,
and perfect love of Christ their Lord to smite the evils of this world.

4 In them the Father's glory shone,
in them the will of God the Son,
in them exults the Holy Ghost,
through them rejoice the heavenly host.

5 To thee, Redeemer, now we cry, that thou wilt join to them on high thy servants, who this grace implore, for ever and for evermore.

Sanctus Choir (Missa Aeterna Christi Munera)

G.P. da Palestrina

Presider Gracious God,
in the fullness of time you sent Jesus the Christ
to share our fragile humanity.
Through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection
you open the path from brokenness to health, from fear to trust, from pride and conceit
to reverence for you.

Rejected by a world
that could not bear the Gospel of life,
Jesus knew death was near.
His head anointed for burial
by an unknown woman,
Jesus gathered together those who loved him.
He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it and gave it to his friends,

saying, "Take and eat:
this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine,
gave you thanks, and said "Drink this all of you,
this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me."
And now we gather at this table
in response to his commandment,
to share the bread and cup of Christ's undying love,
and to proclaim our faith.

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider

Breathe your Holy Spirit,
the wisdom of the universe,
upon these gifts that we bring to you:
this bread, this cup, ourselves, our souls and bodies, that we may be signs of your love for all the world and ministers of your transforming purpose.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory is yours, Creator of all,
and we bless your holy name forever.

All

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider Creator of all,
you gave us golden fields of wheat, whose many grains we have gathered and made into this one bread.

All* So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth
into your kingdom.

Presider The gifts of God for the people of God.

All* Thanks be to God.

Share the Gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion.

While the communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence —this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.

Healing Prayer is offered at the 10:30am Sunday Eucharist. Because of the close proximity of the prayer team members and the person requesting prayer, you are asked to wear a mask. Prayer teams will be located in the west alcove. Please make your way up the ramp to the alcove after you have received communion, and present your prayer request to the team members. If you are not receiving Healing Prayer, you are asked to refrain from entering the Alcove at this time, in order to safeguard privacy.

Closing Hymn

The Church of Christ in Every Age (CP 584)

Text: Fred Pratt Green (1903-2000)

Music: William Knapp (1698-1768) WAREHAM; descant Rupert Lang

1. The church of Christ, in every age, beset by change but Spirit-led,
must claim and test its heritage and keep on rising from the dead.

2. Across the world, across the street, the victims of injustice cry
for shelter and for bread to eat, and never live until they die.

3. Now let the servant church arise, a caring church that longs to be a partner in Christ's sacrifice,
and clothed in Christ's humanity.

Choir

4. For he alone, whose blood was shed, can cure the fever in our blood,
and teach us how to share our bread and feed the starving multitude.

All

5. We have no mission but to serve in full obedience to our Lord,
to care for all, without reserve,
and spread Christ's liberating Word.

The Dismissal

Deacon

All

Go forth into the world rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

Thanks be to God!

Music Notes

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (1525/6-94) was the first composer in history whose style was codified and consciously preserved as an exemplar. To the Catholic Church, his works are a model of liturgical music, while to music historians Palestrina represents the pinnacle of Renaissance polyphony. Many contrapuntal textbooks have been based on his style which might imply a certain academic conservatism, but the music itself exhibits a serene fluidity, clarity and balance which makes it a favourite with both choirs and congregations.

Named after the town in which he was born, Palestrina's life and work centred around Rome. He served as director of various establishments, notably the Capella Giulia at St. Peter's Basilica; Palestrina sang for a short time with the Sistine choir but the application of a celibacy rule by the new Pope led to his dismissal (Palestrina was married). His works were published in a series of volumes beginning in 1555 which eventually included seven books of masses, six of motets and various other volumes of liturgical music and madrigals.

The Missa Aeterna Christi Munera was published in 1590 in the fifth volume of masses. Its title derives from the Gregorian hymn appointed for Matins on the feasts of Apostles and Evangelists, which in translation by the Victorian churchman and scholar John Mason Neale occurs as our opening hymn this morning. Renaissance polyphonic mass settings were frequently based on pre-existent music, e.g., structured around an individual voice (cantus firmus) or using an entire polyphonic texture as a basis (parody). The Missa Aeterna Christi Munera is a paraphrase mass; Palestrina takes fragments of the original Gregorian melodies and employs them as points of imitation, passing them from voice to voice as he builds up the contrapuntal structure. Listen for echoes of the opening hymn in the mass setting.

One of Palestrina's most beloved motets, Sicut Cervus was published posthumously in 1604 but has been frequently anthologized since the nineteenth century. The motet is a setting of the opening of Psalm 42, the text appointed as the tract sung during the procession to the font on Holy Saturday. Palestrina here employs more word-painting than in the mass, notably in the use of denser imitation and increased dissonance to express the soul's spiritual yearning.
