

Summer Speaker Series - Episode I "Worship Sunday"

Worship is our Response

Worship is a significant part of our response to life in general. Although life in the last few years has changed us and many things around us, God remains the same. Let us look at how worship can be our response, then, to life on the mountaintops, life in the lowest valleys and life in our average day-to-day experiences.

Worship is our Response on the Mountaintops

- We see King David as our example in 1 Samuel and 2 Samuel. He also wrote 75 of the Psalms.
- The _____: when life is good! _____ should be our response!
- David _____ when God had delivered him from his enemies and had saved his life. We need to remember to do the same.

"The Lord is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation. He is my stronghold, my refuge and my savior— from violent people you save me. "I called to the Lord, who is worthy of praise, and have been saved from my enemies. 2 Samuel 22:2-4

Worship is our Response in the Valley

- The _____: when life is very difficult. _____ should be our response.
- When David was broken, hurting, confused, grieving, he turned to God and he _____.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love;

according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Psalm 51:1-2

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Psalm 51:10-12

Worship is our Response in our Day-to-Day

- Worship is not a response to a _____. Worship is our response to the _____ of God.
- This response is actually our _____. How am I going to respond to the love of God today?

David wrote it this way in Psalm 95:1-7:

Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song. For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land. Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; for he is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care.

All scripture is from the New International Version unless otherwise noted.

Summer Speaker Series - Episode I "Worship Sunday"

Worship is our Response

Worship is a significant part of our response to life in general. Although life in the last few years has changed us and many things around us, God remains the same. Let us look at how worship can be our response, then, to life on the mountaintops, life in the lowest valleys and life in our average day-to-day experiences.

Worship is our Response on the Mountaintops

- We see King David as our example in 1 Samuel and 2 Samuel. He also wrote 75 of the Psalms.
- The Mountaintop: when life is good! Worship should be our response!
- David celebrated when God had delivered him from his enemies and had saved his life. We need to remember to do the same.

"The Lord is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation. He is my stronghold, my refuge and my savior— from violent people you save me. "I called to the Lord, who is worthy of praise, and have been saved from my enemies. 2 Samuel 22:2-4

Worship is our Response in the Valley

- The Valley: when life is very difficult. Worship should be our response.
- When David was broken, hurting, confused, grieving, he turned to God and he worshipped.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love;

according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Psalm 51:1-2

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me. Psalm 51:10-12

Worship is our Response in our Day-to-Day

- Worship is not a response to a feeling. Worship is our response to the love of God.
- This response is actually our responsibility. How am I going to respond to the love of God today?

David wrote it this way in Psalm 95:1-7:

Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation. Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song. For the Lord is the great God, the great King above all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to him. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land. Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker; for he is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care.

All scripture is from the New International Version unless otherwise noted.