Church Mission Statement:

“A place for all people to encounter God,
be continually transformed and engage the community.”

Community We Serve:

Prince Rupert is home to amazing wildlife, unique history, cultural experiences, and the spectacular scenery of the rugged Coast Mountain Range and the Great Bear Rainforest.

Prince Rupert is known as the city of rainbows but with the rain comes rainforest unlike any other. From fishing to hiking trails to kayaking and world class skiing, there is an outdoor activity for anyone. With French immersion elementary schools, a thriving arts and theatre community, and a plethora of community clubs and events, there is something for everyone.

Listed on the McLean's Magazine top 50 Canada's Best Communities to Live in 2019, Prince Rupert is a city with a small town feel. Check out visitprincerupert.com and makeprincerupertHOME.com
