

The Redemptive Thread

SEEING GOD'S FAITHFULNESS IN OUR STORY

Valley Women's 2022 In-Town Retreat

God's plan of salvation was in place from the beginning. His thread of redemption weaves throughout history, starting with Adam and Eve and the fall. It also weaves throughout our own lives, pointing us to our Savior, Jesus Christ. When we can see him at work in every detail, we can trust in his faithfulness, his goodness, and his promise to never leave us or forsake us.

Please join us for this local time away as we look at The Redemptive Thread: Seeing God's Faithfulness in our Story.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

DENINE BLEVINS, GUEST SPEAKER

Denine is a proud New Yorker who loves bringing together people who normally wouldn't share the same space. Over the past 20 years, she has used her gift of "bringing order out of chaos" to help organizations move from idea to implementation. Some of her past ministry adventures include opening a substance abuse recovery home for women, launching a dance team for kids experiencing poverty, and replanting a cross-cultural, bilingual church in Manhattan. Denine enjoys hip hop dance, listening to podcasts, and helping women remember their gospel identity. She and her husband Robert live in Huntsville, Alabama with their dog, Sydney. She is currently the director of Parakaleo ministries, an international ministry to church planting wives.

We look forward to this time of singing, learning, discussing and gathering together!

Denine Blevins will join us as our guest speaker. During the afternoon we will hear from a few of our own Valley Women about God's faithfulness in their stories.

After, we will open it up to questions from you! Do you have questions about marriage, parenting, difficulties of life, growing in the faith?

Send them to Kathy Guest at kguest@valleymadison.com by Sept. 21st so we can prepare.
