HOME AWAY FROM HOME - Many students at Columbia Bible College are looking for local connections here in Abbotsford that will give them a sense of having a “home away from home.” CBC is looking for individuals or families who would be willing to open their home to a couple of CBC students a few times a semester for coffee, meals, board games, or other shared activities. If you wish more information or wish to register as a host home, Emma van Kuik from CBC will be in the church foyer after the Sunday service.
