"TAKE WHAT YOU NEED,

Our pantry needs a little bit of love!

We need a re-stock!

Items are always coming and going so, let's freshen it up! We really appreciate the items donated thus far and always look forward to the ever-changing donations. Let's do what we "can" to keep this stocked up in these difficult times.

The "Bread and Butter Club" is happy to announce their donations of fresh produce and yogurt to the Food Bank this month.

50 pounds of fresh carrots,

70 pounds of cooking onions

and 6 large, lovely cabbages along with 18 containers of yoghurt were also donated. Thank you!

A NOTE FROM OUR WARDENS

Dear Parishioners,

Rev. Jenny has been on medical leave for the last month. Our Archdeacon Megan Collings-Moore has been working diligently to arrange for supply clergy while Jenny has been off. We appreciate those who have provided this service to St. James over the past month.

Rev. Jenny's leave has now been extended to December 31, 2022. As of today, the Venerable Nancy Adams will be providing interim ministry at St. James until the end of December 2022. She will celebrate and preach at our Sunday worship service, as well as provide some limited hours of ministry per week. We will be meeting with Nancy to jointly determine her duties and priorities.

Please keep Rev. Jenny in your prayers of healing.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to reach out to one of us.
