

Looking for a Way to Help Others?

Meet New People - Make A Few Extra Dollars

Support a Person With a Disability, While Giving Their Family a Break

Qualifications:

1. Care about others and like to help people
2. Have your own transportation
3. Able to provide physical support to a person with a disability
4. Have an understanding of community resources (parks, libraries, grocery stores, etc.)
5. Have basic living skills to assist individuals in cooking, doing things in the home, or engaging in the community

How To Get Started:

1. Complete the questionnaire online or call 314-817-2236
2. You'll share the areas and times (day, night, overnight, weekend) you are willing to work
3. Your contact information and preferences will be added to the Respite Care Provider list

If your preferences match those of a family, they will contact you directly. All communication and payment will take place between you and the family. You will have the option to agree or decline any opportunities.

Becoming a Respite Care Provider offers a flexible, part-time opportunity for people looking for something meaningful to do in their free-time. As an independent contractor, Respite Care Providers offer short-term support to an adult or child with a disability.

For questions about becoming a Respite Provider, contact Amy Burnett, Family Support Coordinator, St. Louis Arc, at aburnett@slarc.org or 314-817-2236. Take a photo of the QR Code to learn more and apply.
