ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

You are blessed

Sundays after Pentecost

GREEN is a sign of life and nature and as such represents growth, life and hope.

verse for the week

Blessed are you who are hungry now. You will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are sad now. You will laugh.

LUKE 6:21

SHARE

share your highs and lows of the day, or respond to the following avestions:

Share about a time when you were sad. Who comforted you?

Jesus said
"Blessed are you
who are sad now.
You will laugh"
(Luke 6:21).
How does God
comfort people who are sad?

People are very sad when friends or loved ones die. How does faith in Jesus help people who are mourning?

Rituals and Traditions

PRAY

Lord Jesus,
thank you for giving us a hope
and a future.
May our whole
lives bring praise
to you. Amen.

May your Father
in heaven
give you the wisdom and understanding that comes from the Holy Spirit, so that you grow to know God better.

Creative Response

set aside time to light candles in remembrance of Christian friends or loved ones who have died.

Have a minute of silence and listen to a household member read from 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18.

Look at pictures of your departed loved ones and share stories about their lives. If possible, visit their gravesites. Take along flowers to leave in their honour.

mealtime prayer

Lord, as we await our home in heaven, bless our home on earth. As you fill our stomachs with food, please fill our hearts with faith. Amen.

On All Saints Sunday we are called to remember those around us who are grieving.

Is there someone you know who is mourning a loved one?

Phone them, send a card, or take them a bunch of flowers or a plate of treats.
