

Pentecost 23

Remembrance Sunday

November 13, 2022, 10:00 am

A PARISH OF THE ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF NEW WESTMINSTER

The Right Reverend John Stephens, Bishop; The Reverend Lorne Manweiler, Rector & Regional Dean of Point Grey

Welcome!

We're glad you're here!

We are happy and honoured that you've joined us this morning—whether in-person or online via Facebook and the parish website. If you need a place to take a break with your child, a nursery area is available. Washrooms are available on the main level of the church. Please ask a sidesperson or your neighbour if you have questions or need assistance. You're warmly invited to join us for refreshments in the parish hall following the service.

Remembrance Observance

Prelude

Nimrod from Enigma Variations

Edward Elgar (1857-1934)

Welcome & Verses

Celebrant

What does the Lord require of you

People

but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Micah 6:8

The presiding minister continues,

We meet in the presence of God.

People

We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

Celebrant

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.

All

We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

Processional Hymn CP 594 – “Judge Eternal, Throned in Splendour”

Acknowledgement

Celebrant We begin by acknowledging that we live, work, play, and worship on the traditional and unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples including the x̣ʷməθkʷəỵəm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish) and Səlilwətaʔ (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations.

All May our words and our actions reflect our awareness and appreciation of this.

Remembering

Celebrant They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old; age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

Choir At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

All We will remember them.

The Last Post is sounded.

John MacLachlan, trumpet

Silence is kept.

The Reveille is sounded.

Laying of the Wreaths During the laying of the wreaths, the bagpiper sounds a lament.

Brittany Crooks, bagpipe

Address & Poem

“In Flanders Fields”
(John McRae, 1915)

read by Peter Fryer

An Act of Commitment

Celebrant Let us commit ourselves to responsible living and faithful service.

Will you strive for all that makes for peace? All We will.

Celebrant Will you seek to heal the wounds of war? All We will.

Celebrant Will you work for a just future for all humanity? All We will.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Merciful God, we offer to you the fears in us that have not yet been cast out by love: may we accept the hope you have placed in the hearts of all people, and live lives of justice, courage and mercy; through Jesus Christ our risen redeemer.

All Amen.

The National Anthem CP 659 – “O Canada,” stanza 1

Blessing

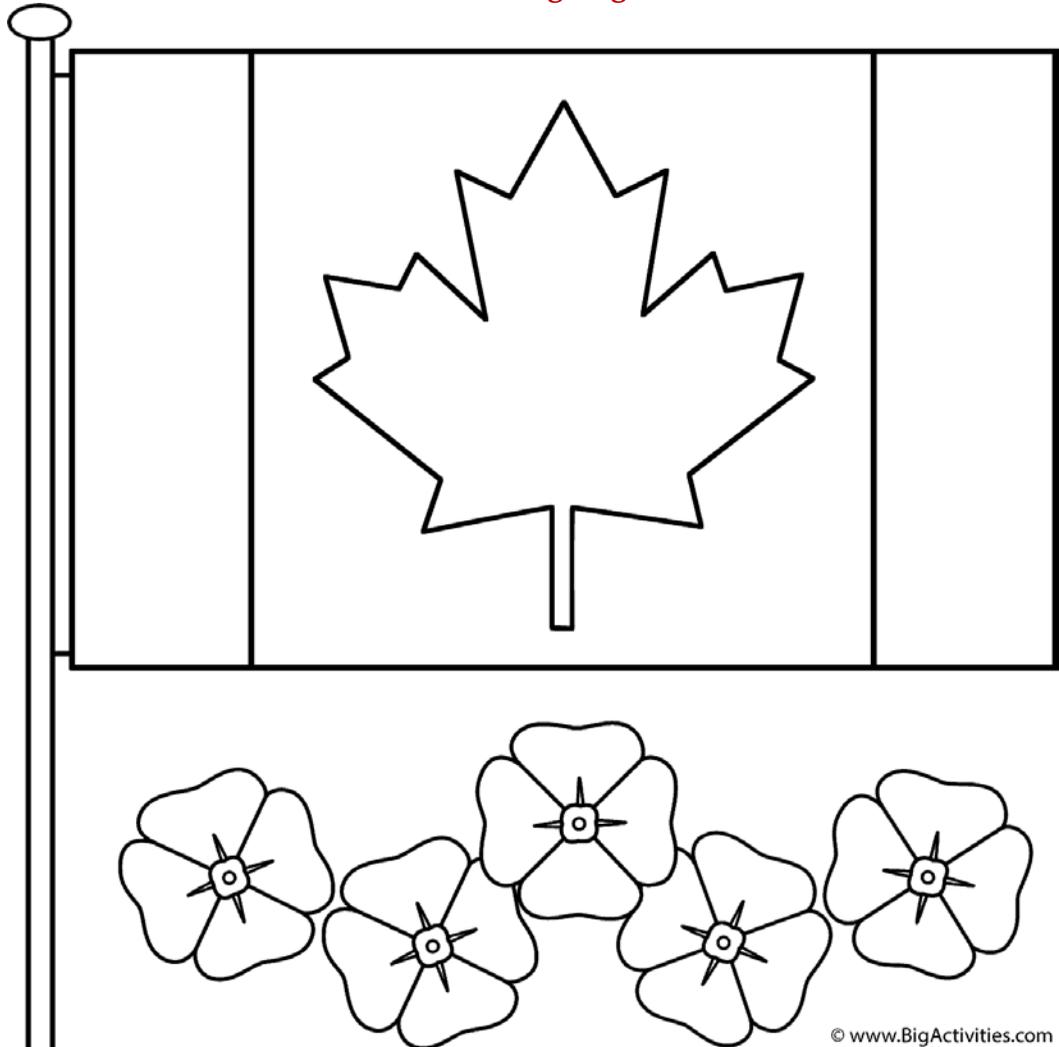

Celebrant

God grant to the living grace, to the departed rest, to the Church, the King, the Commonwealth and all people, unity, peace and concord, and to us and all God's servants, life everlasting; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

– THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD –

Collect of the Day

Celebrant O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without you nothing is strong, nothing is holy. Embrace us with your mercy, that with you as our ruler and guide, we may live through what is temporary without losing what is eternal, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord.

All Amen.

“From Life to Death and Death to Life” – In our baptisms we move spiritually from death to life. We are reminded of this in the words from the service of Holy Baptism: “For us he suffered the baptism of his own death and resurrection, setting us free from the bondage of sin and death, and opening to us the joy and freedom of everlasting life” (BAS 156). We begin in death, and grace raises us to life. Still, we tend to focus on the spiritual nature of this change or transformation.

It is easy to forget that by the very nature of that baptism, we can in an instant move physically from life to death for the sake of the life we are gifted with in baptism. We hear the words of promise and trust in the gifts and blessings of baptism, but overlook the accompanying responsibility. Like a teenager with a brand new driver’s license we relish our newfound freedom and may forget all those other drivers on the road whose safety depends upon the new driver.

The new life we receive in baptism is a life that is lived to God each day. On any given day we may be called upon to renounce, in some way, the God we serve and love. On any given day, we may be called upon to stand up for life—or for a life, or for our own life—or for someone’s freedom or safety, or for love, perhaps even under threat of death. Many around the world live that kind of life every day for the sake of the gospel. Jesus encouraged disciples to always be ready for the tests and trials that will somehow surely come. As we grow in the obedience, courage, patience, and love we need to keep the faith in difficult times.

First Reading Malachi 4:1-2a (p. 864)

read Mary Lymburner

Malachi, whose name means “my messenger,” warns that “the day is coming.” On that day, the evil will be destroyed like stubble in a fire, but the “sun of righteousness” will shine on those who honour God.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

All Thanks be to God.

Alleluia & Verse CP 708

All Alleluia... alleluia... alleluia...

Choir Stand up and | raise your heads,*
because your redemption is | drawing near. (Rev. 1:5-6)

All Alleluia... alleluia... alleluia...

The Holy Gospel Luke 21:5-19 (p. 85)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

As history moves toward God's fulfillment there will be frightening signs and events. Before the end, believers will draw strength from their relationship to God and will be given the words they need to testify and to endure without fear.

After the reading:

Celebrant The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon The Reverend Lorne Manweiler, Rector

The Prayers of the Community

Glenn Sutherland, Intercessor

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Confession and Absolution BAS 191

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The members of the community, ministers & people, may greet each other in the name of the Lord.

The Preparation of the Gifts

& Offertory Hymn CP 575 – “Let Streams of Living Justice”

– THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST –

Prayer over the Gifts

Celebrant Holy God, in this eucharist we renew our baptismal covenant.

People Help us, through our offering this day, to renounce all things that draw us from your love.

Celebrant This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

BAS/ELW

Celebrant The Lord be with you

All And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. By the witness of your saints you show us the hope of our calling and strengthen us to run the race set before us, that we may delight in your mercy and rejoice with them in glory. And so, with all the saints, with the choirs of angels and all the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant

Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory. In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor, and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food, the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord; to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever.

All Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant “I am the bread of life,” says the Lord. “Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

All Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God.

People Thanks be to God.

The Communion — Hymns

CP 55 – “When Jesus Died to Save Us”

CP 56 – “I am the Bread, the Bread of Life”

Some helps regarding Communion at St. Philip’s during COVID-19:

- Please follow the direction of the ushers to come forward for Communion;
- two lines are formed in the side aisles; if you wish to receive a blessing rather than to commune, please proceed to the Celebrant’s queue;
- the bread, the body of Christ, is offered as well as the Cup, the blood of Christ;
- drinking from the Common Cup is optional, and you are welcome simply to bow or touch the cup in acknowledgement if you prefer;
- intinction (dipping the host in the wine) is not permitted due to wheat contamination concerns for those with celiac disease or wheat allergies;
- hand sanitizer should be used before communing and is available as you come forward;
- please commune individually or in your cohort group to ensure safer physical distancing.

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant Gracious God, in this sacrament we have shared the body and blood of Christ.

People May we who have been nourished by holy things bear witness to his light, and share in his eternal priesthood;

Celebrant for he is Lord for ever and ever.

People Amen.

Parish Announcements Given by the Churchwardens

Doxology

Celebrant

All

Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Benediction

Celebrant

Go forth into the world in peace;
Be of good courage; hold fast that which is good;
Render to no one evil for evil;
Strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak;
Help the afflicted; honour everyone;
Love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

And the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Recessional Hymn CP 573 – “O Day of Peace”

Dismissal The celebrant dismisses the people, saying,

Celebrant

Go in peace. Be a blessing in the world!

People

Thanks be to God.

CHRISTMAS HAMPER TIME IS HERE

St. Philip's Outreach Committee invites you all to sponsor one or two underprivileged families from Elementary Schools in Vancouver. Each school selects 10 families who need our support. This year again, Outreach will purchase Grocery Gift cards for each family, while St. Philip's parishioners are invited to buy Christmas Gift cards (for a store chosen by each family) for the family that they have chosen to sponsor. The value suggested for the Christmas Gift cards is $20 - $25 for each family member.

By Dec. 4, please contact Sandy Harrison (srharrison401@gmail.com 604.731.3482) or Joanne Vondette (vondette@gmail.com 604.263.9792) with the name of the family you will sponsor. Sandy and Joanne will be in the gym after church every Sunday to help match you with a family and collect your readied gift cards.

Deliver your family's Christmas Gift cards in a personalised Christmas card to St. Philip's by Sunday Dec 11. You can also deposit your card before Dec 11 into the secure white metal post box in the Church hallway beside the parishioner's mail boxes.

Outreach volunteers will deliver to schools the Christmas Hampers of grocery cards and Christmas gifts cards on Dec 12. Looking forward to a very successful Christmas Hamper project! Blessings to all, Joanne Vondette.

CHARITABLE DONATIONS 2022

Please give your donations by mid December if you wish them to be deposited before year end for tax purposes.

HEALTH

As we enter the season of rising Covid numbers, all are encouraged to wear an N95 mask to church..

ENGAGE

Would you like to join a committee or be part of a service opportunity at St. Philip's? Be in touch with Rev. Lorne for details and assistance.

NEIGHBOURHOOD MINISTRY

Thank you from the Neighbourhood Ministry. On October 29th, Steph and Mary headed out from St Philip's with packages, fresh food, jackets, gloves, sleeping bags and sleeping mats. Thank you Mira and Samantha for preparing the packages, Joanne for providing the eggs and fruit, Mira for making the sandwiches and Suzi for organising everything. Thanks also to the parishioners of St Philip's for donating the food for the packages which make these outings possible. They had a good outing. As well as seeing some of our regulars, they met a few people whom they had not met before. The two sleeping bags that they handed out were much appreciated given the cold weather. People were also grateful for the warm jackets and gloves. For a full write up of this outing click here- <https://www.stphilipsdunbar.com/news/with-gratitude>

Rhona Thornton,
Parish Liaison to the Neighbourhood Ministry
