Processional Hymn CP 378 – “Crown Him with Many Crowns”

Acknowledgement

Celebrant We begin by acknowledging that we live, work, play, and worship on the traditional and unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples including the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), Sk̓wx̓wú7mesh (Squamish) and Səlilwətaʔ (Tseil-Waututh) Nations.

All May our words and our actions reflect our awareness and appreciation of this.

A moment of silence for reflection is kept.

Hymn of Praise CP 371 – “To God Be the Glory”

Celebrant O God, our true life, to serve you is freedom, and to know you is unending joy. We worship you, we glorify you, we give thanks to you for your great glory. Abide with us, reign in us, and make this world into a fit habitation for your divine majesty, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

All Amen.

Children’s Chat

– THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD –

Who Is Jesus? – Jesus’ true identity seems to remain a mystery for most of the disciples. Jesus can teach, preach, heal, cast out demons, challenge authority and more, but still they do not comprehend. You might say it is a case of mistaken identity as the disciples and other followers seem to be hoping to discover something very different from the real Jesus. It is the criminal executed with Jesus who in his dying desperation says, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” Clearly, the criminal has no other hope, still in this moment he acknowledges Jesus’ true identity.

Modern followers of Jesus resemble those ancient followers in many ways. Everyone has their own image of Jesus, the gifts we want Jesus to bring us, the ways we want Jesus to fix those things in our lives that cause pain or suffering. In our anxiety we want Jesus to be our magical saviour. It can be frustrating when we discover a very different Jesus. Instead of one who fixes everything in an instant, Jesus is the one who walks with us through the darkest valleys. Jesus is the one who calls us to lives of service—and again and again as we care for the needs of others we discover the face of Jesus himself in the lost, the last, and the least.

Our sin gets in the way, yet those who profess Jesus as Christ the King—the one in whom the fullness of God was pleased to dwell—are forever seeking to be clear in heart, mind, and soul about the true nature of his identity, and how we can share that identity with others.

First Reading Jeremiah 23:1-6 (p. 725)

read Janet Brown

Today's reading builds on the common, ancient Near Eastern metaphor of the king as shepherd. Judah's unjust rulers have caused their people, their "flock," to be scattered. Nevertheless, God will raise up a new and righteous shepherd who will rule a restored Judah.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

All Thanks be to God.

Psalms 46

C G

1 God is our refuge and strength,
 2 Though its waters rage and foam,
 3 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
 4 The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are shaken;
 5 Come now and look upon the works of the LORD,
 6 "Be still, then, and know that I am God;

a very pre - sent help in trouble.
 and though the mountains trem - ble at its tumult.
 the holy habi - ta - tion of the Most High.
 God has spoken, and the earth shall melt a - way.
 what awesome things he has done on earth.
 I will be exalted
 among the nations; I will be ex - alt - ed in the earth."

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved,
The LORD of hosts is with us;

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be o - ver - thrown;
The LORD of hosts is with us;

It is he who makes war to cease in all the world;
The LORD of hosts is with us;

and though
the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;
the God of Ja - cob is our stronghold.

God shall help her at the break of day.
the God of Ja - cob is our stronghold.

Second Reading Colossians 1:11-20 (p. 199)

read by Joycelyn Gardener

An early Christian hymn praises the mystery of the political, personal, and mystical Christ, the one who was present at creation and is eternally reigning with God.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

All Thanks be to God.

Alleluia & Verse CP 708

All Alleluia... alleluia... alleluia...

Choir Stand up and | raise your heads,
Because your redemption is | drawing near.

(Luke 21:28)

All Alleluia... alleluia... alleluia...

The Holy Gospel Luke 21:5-19 (p. 88)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Amid scoffing and slander from those who sarcastically call him Messiah and king, Jesus reveals that to be Messiah and king is to give one's life for others. Here he uses his power to welcome a despised sinner to paradise but puts his own death into God's hands.

After the reading:

Celebrant The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

(ELW 97)

The assembly stands as they are able. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Celebrant Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God,

People the fountain of living water,

Celebrant the rock who gave us birth,

People our light and our salvation. Amen.

The presiding minister addresses the assembly.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism,

we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness.

Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

Water is poured into the font as the presiding minister gives thanks.

We give you thanks, O God,

for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.

Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.
Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom.
At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.
By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons,
[all your children], making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.
We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life,
and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ.

People Show us with your Spirit, and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.

Celebrant To you be given honour and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

All Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The members of the community, ministers & people, may greet each other in the name of the Lord.

The Preparation of the Gifts & Offertory Hymn CP 618 – “Glorious in Majesty”

– THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST –

Prayer over the Gifts

Celebrant Eternal God, by your grace you have raised us up and enthroned us with Christ in the heavenly realms.

People Receive all we offer you this day, and lead us in those good works for which you have created us.

Celebrant We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

BAS/ELW

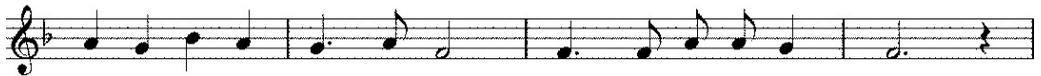

Celebrant The Lord be with you
All And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.

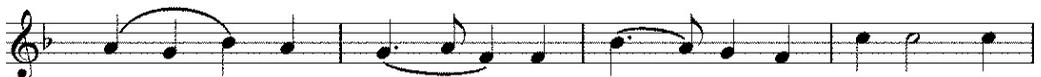

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Celebrant

Holy God, you alone are holy, you alone are God.

The universe declares your praise: beyond the stars; beneath the sea;
within each cell; with every breath.

People

We praise you, O God.

Celebrant

Generations bless your faithfulness: through the water; by night and day;
across the wilderness; out of exile; into the future.

People

We bless you, O God.

Celebrant

We give you thanks for your dear Son: at the heart of human life; near to those who suffer; beside the sinner; among the poor; with us now.

People

We thank you, O God.

Celebrant

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat;
this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering his love for us on the way, at the table, and to the end, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died; Christ is ris-en; Christ will come a - gain.

We pray for the gift of your Spirit: in our gathering; within this meal;
among your people; throughout the world.

Blessing, praise, and thanks to you, holy God, through Christ Jesus, by your Spirit, in your church, without end.

All

A - men, a - men, a - men.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,
All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant "I am the bread of life," says the Lord. "Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst."
All Taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are they who trust in him!
Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God.
People Thanks be to God.

The Communion — Hymn CP 345 – "King of Glory, King of Peace"
CP 49 – "Draw Near and Take"
CP 48 – "Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence"

Some helps regarding Communion at St. Philip's during COVID-19:

- Please follow the direction of the ushers to come forward for Communion;
- two lines are formed in the side aisles; if you wish to receive a blessing rather than to commune, please proceed to the Celebrant's queue;
- the bread, the body of Christ, is offered as well as the Cup, the blood of Christ;
- drinking from the Common Cup is optional, and you are welcome simply to bow or touch the cup in acknowledgement if you prefer;
- intinction (dipping the host in the wine) is not permitted due to wheat contamination concerns for those with celiac disease or wheat allergies;
- hand sanitizer should be used before communing and is available as you come forward;
- please commune individually or in your cohort group to ensure safer physical distancing.

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant Almighty God, you have made us a royal priesthood in the kingdom of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.

People Make known his victory through us, we pray, that all the world may see his light.

Celebrant We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

All Amen.

Parish Announcements Given by the Churchwardens

Doxology

Celebrant Glory to God,

All whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Benediction

Celebrant May Jesus Christ, the King of the World, make his reign known through your life.

May his Kingdom's present reality be a constant reminder for you to reflect his love and grace into this world and invite others to know our King.

May his Kingdom's future fulfillment move you to focus your heart away from the things of this present, fleeting age, so that you may cling to that which is good and right and eternal as you offer your life continually to the One who holds eternity.

The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you.

The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.

All Amen.

Recessional Hymn CP 632 – “The King of Glory Comes”

Dismissal The celebrant dismisses the people, saying,
