MINISTER’S MESSAGE—REV. BOB

As you read this, the season of Advent will have begun. Each year we focus on a different overarching theme that highlights Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love – the four candles of advent. Each week we light a candle symbolizing one of these core aspects of how we understand what God has done and is doing in our lives through the gospel of Christ. It’s a way of reflecting each week on what the incarnation, the indwelling of God, Emmanuel means, yet it’s not always easy to hold onto those symbols, let alone place them at the centre of our lives amongst all the distractions for our time, care, and resources.

Our theme for this Advent is Lost Icons: God in Our Midst. Each week we will focus on one of the Christmas Icons, how they’ve been pushed aside or diminished in significance, and how we can re-center them and ourselves on what really matters – the presence of Jesus, not the presents of stuff. I’ll admit, that sounds really easy and I’ll also admit how hard I find it personally. I like getting presents. I like giving presents. I like thinking about how each present I give reflects my relationship with the person receiving it. At the same time, I look around our home and realize we have lots of stuff and, If I’m honest with myself and you, it isn’t the stuff that’s important it’s the experiences they’ve enable or been part of.

Advent as a time of reflection and preparation also offers us the opportunity to examine what we've been placing at the centre of life and what we've been displacing. That's a hard conversation at the best of times. People tend to find it easier to name what's at the centre, even if it makes them uncomfortable, yet naming what's being displaced is a whole other level of challenge. When work is at the centre, what's being displaced? Family? Friends? Neighbours? Community? The same question could be asked of any of these if family/friends/neighbours/volunteering is at the centre what's being displaced? The goal isn't to feel bad, that's not what this is about. It's about acknowledging the reality and then making some decisions about what life could look like, the life of abundant hope, peace, joy, and love that is possible when Christ is at the centre. What I've come to realize is that when I put something else at the centre of my life there's always a competition between equally important aspects of life. It sets up a dualism, it's either this or that, one "wins" and one "loses". When I manage to keep Christ at the centre space is created where it isn't about a competition anymore, it's about an eco-system of presence where priorities shift and change depending on what's needed at that moment in time, yet always filtered through the lenses of hope, peace, joy, and love. As the good folks over at Advent Conspiracy name it (watch the video here: <https://youtu.be/2yfnlhvmr-k>) the icons of Advent foster a certain call within us to conspire against the pressures in the world to displace the icons of Advent from the centre and instead focus on our individuality, our difference, our scarcity, and our fear. That's really not what the promise of Advent is all about.

This Advent, as one part of our Care for Creation ministry priority, we're all being invited to conspire together for a greener Christmas. One where we worship fully, spend less, give more, and love all as we rediscover the lost icons of Advent and the reality that God is in our midst, we just need to pay attention. It's a journey of meaning that will be different for each of us, yet similar at the same time. Through music, Cantata, candles, prayer, silence, and reflection wrapped in different worship experiences from joyous and loud to quiet and reflective it promises to be a journey made richer when we take it together and extend the invitation for others to join us.

Throughout Advent, on Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, and beyond. It really is a most wonderful time of the year, not because of the stress, chaos, emotions, memories, or presents, but the presence that journeys with us the whole year through.

From my family to yours, Advent Blessings, and Merry Christmas!

Rev. Bob

HARMONY HOUSE SET TO BEGIN!

The final stage of funding approval for the construction of a new purpose designed home for Harmony House happened on November 23. With construction funding approved, pre-construction work will start as soon as possible. IDL Construction was awarded the construction contract as part of the competitive process. Final legal agreements, licenses, and easements are being finalized for signing before the end of November. An early concept drawing helps show some of the key concepts that have been included in the design including a residential feel, a design that fits into the neighbourhood, shared parking, a fenced play area, and keeping as many of the mature trees as possible. You can find our more on the BC Housing info page: <https://letstalkhousingbc.ca/prince-george-zelkwas>. After over 4 years of planning and more meetings than you can count, we're finally at the construction phase!

What does that mean for Trinity United, you may ask. For now, it will mean a fenced in construction site in the back parking lot. It will mean a much tighter second row of parking (as long as the snow permits it). Everyone is encouraged to park along the church building, down the side of the building, and in the front parking lot. If there is room for a second row in the back, please do so carefully. It also means some temporary gas and electrical connections to enable construction to happen. Eventually you'll see lots of equipment and people as work begins in earnest. The construction timeline is roughly 15 months from start to finish. If you have any questions please contact Rev. Bob and if he doesn't have the answers, he'll get them!

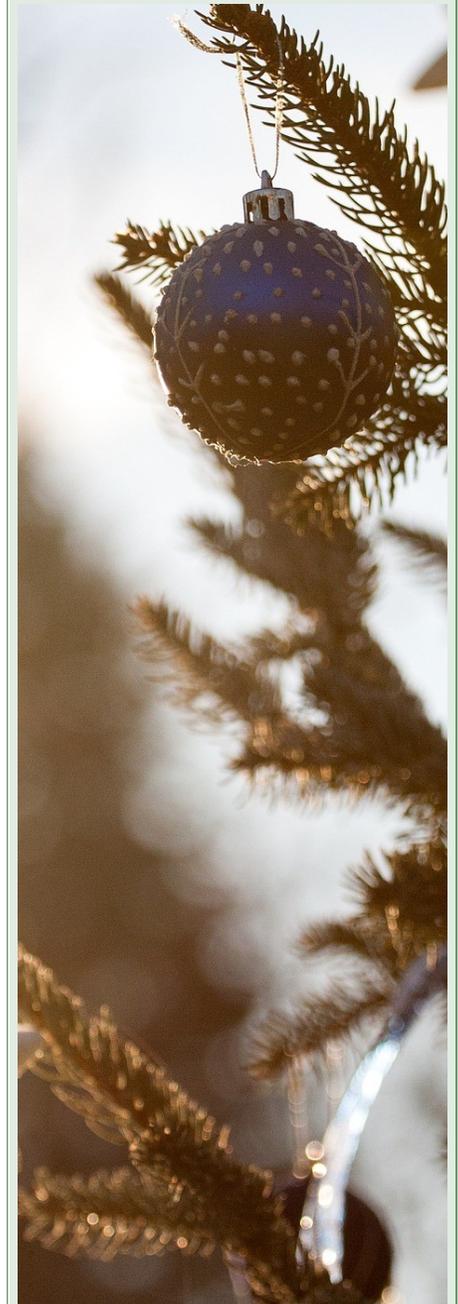

ADVENT 2022 RESOURCES

This Advent we've prepared several different resources to help you engage this holy season of waiting and preparing.

If you visit <https://www.trinitypg.ca/worship-spirituality/pages/advent-christmas> starting November 28 you'll find a growing number of resources that you can use at home, on your own, or with family and friends. The daily reflection cards this year have to option: a double-sided version that includes the graphics for each week of Advent and a single sided version if you don't want to print the graphics. We've also numbered the cards for each day of Advent, yet you can use them in any order you'd like. Just print, cut, and voila – you're all set. A video series is being prepared as well as a weekly liturgy if you are lighting Advent candles at home. There's also a nifty little QR code that you can scan with your smart phone/device using its camera that will take you straight to the resource page. Together, let's rediscover the lost icons of Advent and find God in our midst.

Advent Resources

CARE OF CREATION TEAM – SHANNON CARSON

Your Trinity Care of Creation Team had its first meeting on October 11, 2022. At that meeting our main goal was to meet each other and share why we feel called to this team and initial ideas about where we should focus our attention. We generated many ideas, some of which we will be sharing with our Trinity family in the coming months. One of our ideas is an Advent calendar which you can use to make the Christmas season a little more eco-friendly. It is attached to this newsletter and can be printed at home.

We are learning about the United Church of Canada's content about climate change and caring for God's creation. There is a Pacific Mountain Region Climate Network which is just forming, through the Justice Ministry led by Jane Dawson. We plan to stay connected to it and other Communities of Faith who are also working on this initiative.

Our Draft Purpose is: To stimulate conversation, learning and action around climate change that supports care of God's Creation.

If you would like more information about our Team please contact Shannon Carson at 250-964-2245 or sbcarson58@gmail.com.

Respectfully Submitted by Shannon on behalf of,

The Team: Vic Steblin, Marion Bartlett, Linda Schmidt, Judy Addie, John Neumann and Barb Dean

CHOIR—ERICA SKOWRON

On December 11, the choir will present our annual Advent/Christmas Cantata at 10 a.m. as part of our regular Sunday service. This year we will be presenting "The Advent of our God " by James Hansen . Our narrators are Em Cawsey and Les Waldie.

The Choir has been working on this presentation since September. We hope that you will join us On December 11.

FINANCE COMMITTEE—DOUG HOFSTEDE

The Finance committee would like to thank the congregation for their continued financial support of the wonderful work that the church does in the community.

This has been a busy year. We have received several grants to help support the renovations of the downtown campus after the fire. We were also able to tie in the replacement of a portion of roof which began to show its age after a wind storm in the spring. A grant also allowed us to update a number of lights to LED which supports our “care of creation” priority. This will also reduce some operating costs over the long term. However, inflation is much more than we anticipated when we set out budgets last February. We ask that you take this into consideration as we approach the final part of the year. With that, we’d also like to remind you that December 31 is the last day to make your donations for the 2022 tax year.

Chair, Finance Committee

Join us on Saturday December 10th at the main building (3555 5th Ave) for an Advent Mini Retreat from 9AM to 12Noon. It's an opportunity to take a bit of time and just breath during the busy season leading up to Christmas. A chance to ground yourself in the sacred story of Jesus' birth and the ongoing presence we celebrate as part of our lives. What to expect? There will be 4 stations throughout the building reflecting the 4 themes of Advent: hope, peace, joy, and love. Each station will have a different activity to help shape your experience and will take about 15 minutes each (but you can choose to take longer!). You'll be able to start at any station and choose to engage some or all of them, alone or with others. A light lunch will be served at 12Noon. If you are planning to attend and stay to help with Christmas Shoeboxes, please

M & P COMMITTEE—KEITH TAITE

As we approach the Advent and Christmas season let us reflect on the things we are appreciative for over the past year. For most, this represents those around us that bring pleasure and joy just by sharing their time and talents with us. The M & P Committee would like to express our gratitude to our paid staff at Trinity United PG for sharing their time and talents with us throughout the year. During this season we ask the congregation show your appreciation to these great individuals (Rev. Bob, Erica Skowron, Vic Steblin, Diane Kjorven, Rebecca Fillier, Tom Hynd, and Susie Wilson).

As the Chair of the M & P Committee, I would also like to acknowledge my gratitude for my fellow committee members. Best wishes this holiday season, it is a pleasure and joy to be with each of you on our committee.

The M & P Committee, also sends the congregation best wishes this holiday season.

Kindest Regards, Keith Taite (Chair)

FELLOWSHIP TEAM—CATHIE REID

Seasons Greetings from the Fellowship Team. We have had a busy fall. We resumed serving coffee, tea, juice and cookies after Worship on Sunday mornings. It is great to be able to gather together again.

The Fellowship Team does a lot of fundraising which benefits our church community. We held a very successful muffin sale on October 16th which raised $285.00. Our next fundraiser will be our very popular Christmas Cookie Sale. The cookies will be pre-packaged in packages of a dozen. The sale will be held on Cantata Sunday, December 11th following Worship. The cost will be a donation. It is a way to get some Christmas baking.

Our fabulous sewing ladies, Dee Neukomm and Lorna Brown, are making Hats for Kids. The hats can be ordered through the office in packages of six for a cost of $20.00. The hats are then donated to two schools that we are partnered with while Trinity benefits from the funds that we receive.

As a new project this year, we are putting together some Christmas Gifts for Seniors. Marg Smith initiated this project. Dee and Lorna are making gift bags and we are filling them with things such as a nice mug, warm socks, hand cream, chocolate treat, tea, and a decoration. The gifts will be distributed to Seniors in long term care who do not have family support.

We had a mini-Silent Auction on November 20th.

Dorothy Seiter continues to send Sympathy cards and Thinking of You cards to those who need a friendly 'Hello.'

We also assist with serving at Memorial Services when asked and we assist other committees when we can. In the New Year, Trinity United Church will again be hosting the Golden Age Social at the Civic Centre on Wednesday, February 15th . This is a joint effort by the City of Prince George and the Prince George Council of Seniors. Our Seniors love this event and it is an opportunity for us to show our appreciation to them for their service to our community over the years. We will be looking for volunteers to help with this event.

On behalf of the Fellowship Team, I would like to thank you all for your continued support of our fundraising efforts, especially during the challenging times that we are all facing. Also, on behalf of the Fellowship Team, I wish you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Merry Christmas, Cathie Reid (Chair, Fellowship Team)

WORSHIP COMMITTEE—MARION BARTLETT

Amazing. Once again Advent has snuck up upon us when it feels we have hardly let go of summer. It's been a year full of some roller coaster moments, and one that has seen us move from lockdown, to limited and finally to wide open service opportunities. As a church, I feel we have weathered the past few years well with solid transmission of services from the beginning, staying in touch throughout via delivery bags and email updates to in the seat services whenever possible. What a fabulous group of people we have. Thank you to each and everyone of you for being who you are.

And – welcome to all the new people that have visited and joined the church online and onsite. We are so glad to have you in our midst. Please feel free to let members of the worship committee know of any feedback and/or suggestion or questions you may have. We are truly an Affirming Church and proud of it.

With Reverend Bob having a much deserved and needed few months sabbatical, we are so thankful for all the people that filled in in so many ways. I think with all this working together, as a congregation we grew even closer than we already were. What a marvelous feeling to be part of this group.

And now as we roll into Advent, then Christmas and the New Year here is a look at what to expect in the upcoming weeks - plus.

Week of Nov. 21 to 26th In preparation for Advent those signed up for email will receive a copy of the newsletter together with some reflection cards and other items relating to Advent. For those who do not have email, we will be delivering these pieces and special children's packages by personal delivery

November 26 Decorating the church ready for Advent to begin. Everyone is welcome to come and help – 10:00 am – Saturday

November 27 1st Sunday of Advent – the sanctuary has a proud display and the first Advent candle will be lit symbolizing hope.

December 4 Communion and 2nd Sunday of Advent the second Advent candle will be lit symbolizing love.

December 8 Cookie bake-off - 10:00 am until we're done. Thinking of making cookies to contribute to the cookie sale? Bring your recipe to Marion Bartlett's house (phone 250-613-5628) and bake while enjoying some friendly fun fellowship.

December 10 9:00 – 12:00 Adult mini retreat with 4 stations throughout the main building. A perfect chance to take a breather from all the busyness of Christmas preparation and ground yourself in spiritual practices.

December 10 12:00 – 1:00 A time for a bite of lunch

December 10 12:30/1:00 Many hands make light work – join in prepping cookies for cookie sale on the 11th . Please let the Outreach Team know if you'd like to help make Christmas shoeboxes.

December 11 3rd Sunday of Advent and Cantata Sunday. The third Advent candle will be lit symbolizing joy. As well there will be an adult baptism and make sure you check out the cookie sale area. A good chance to fill up your larder ready for enjoying or feeding to company. 3rd Sunday of Advent and Cantata Sunday. The third Advent candle will be lit symbolizing joy. As well there will be an adult baptism and make sure you check out the cookie sale area. A good chance to fill up your larder ready for enjoying or feeding to company .

December 16th or 17th - A caroling we will go. Why- To give some of the “home and difficult to or can't get out” members of our church family a little bit of happy to bring a smile to their face. Where– 8 to 10 homes of members of the congregation. Smiles, a couple of songs, & light hearts all round.

December 18 4th Sunday of Advent. The Fourth Advent candle will be lit symbolizing Love. A pick-up Christmas story is being planned with roles for everyone and enjoyment by all.

December 21 Blue Christmas A special service centered around pain, loss, healing and hope amidst the pressure to be happy and jolly.

December 24 Christmas Eve has 3 services

4:00 pm This is designed specifically for those with young children and their families. It is a shorter 30-minute service with a chance for children to show some of their exuberance. 3 craft stations, the Christmas story, carols, and a pinch of chaos.

6:00 pm This service is planned around families with older children or those who want worship a little earlier. Carols, story, and reflection are the hallmarks of this experience.

9:00 pm This is both a communion and candlelight service. A little slower and more contemplative, it's an opportunity to join together in carols, scripture, reflection, and communion.

December 25 Christmas Day Sunday Service will be held at 11:00 am. PJ's are appropriate if desired. This year we're combining worship and feasting. If you'd like to join us please reserve a seat online or through the main office to help us cook the right amount of food

December 26 The first day of the Christmas Season

January 1 Happy New Year - Communion service

January 6 The last day of Christmas

January 8 Epiphany and Anniversary Service – I wonder – will there be cake?

Come January the Worship Committee will jump feet first into preparation and planning for the 2023 services and the like. Looking forward to seeing what the new year brings, but in the meantime, all the very best to each and every one of you and have a wonderful Christmas. Stay safe and warm and wish you all the very best of the season.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from the Worship Committee.

OUTREACH COMMITTEE—VICKIE BROWN

This Sunday, November 27th, marks the beginning of Advent when we prepare for the celebration of Jesus' birth at Christmas. When we celebrate Christmas each year we are reminded of the gifts that Jesus gives each one of us: hope, peace, love, joy, and finally Himself. We are all in need of these gifts at different times, but for people needing our Outreach services; people on the street, lonely seniors, people struggling with addictions, loneliness, depression, mental illness or violence, these are everyday needs 24/7. Filling the pantry and hampers at A.C.E, as well as the gifts of soup and sandwich lunches, warm dry socks, gloves, hats, blankets, and raingear throughout the year at St. Vincent's provide a glimmer of hope for a better week ahead, and a small taste of what love is about. The joy that the Christmas shoeboxes bring is evident by the smiles on their faces.

So many in need are hidden in plain sight, and we are trying to expand our outreach to others in our community. This year Fellowship is collecting Christmas gift bags for Seniors without family support in care homes and the hospital, and the need for warm clothing and backpacks for school children was emphasized. Once again, the congregation of Trinity and many others in the community have been so generous in their donations of food, items, and services for everyone of concern throughout the year, but especially as we get closer to Christmas. We collected more than 125 pairs of socks and gloves at the Sock it to Me/Drop the Gloves event! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

So as we look ahead to 2023 may we continue to share God's gifts of Hope, Peace, Joy and Love to everyone we meet, especially those hidden in plain sight! Merry Christmas Everyone!

ALL ARE WELCOME

MISSION AND SERVICE TEAM

The Mission and Service team would like to take a moment to thank all of you for your ongoing support to Trinity United and our Mission and Service fund. The fund touches peoples' lives both here in Canada and around the world. Without you we would not be able to continue the many ministries that we support. We are on track again this year thanks to your stewardship as God's people.

With Christmas approaching please keep in mind our "Gifts with Vision." It can help you solve your "What to Buy" dilemma. This could be the answer of what to buy for the hard to buy for person. There has been new categories added to the catalogue. Anti-racism, projects in Nunavut, Guatemala and Palestine – to name a few- support the rights, culture and dignity of people who experience racism daily. Many gifts that have been previously popular are returning this year. The catalogue is small, being mindful of the environment but there are many more choices on the "Gifts with Vision" website. Thank you and remember that a meaningful gift is just a click away.

We hope that you have enjoyed the variety of "Your Generosity Matters" M & S presentations that we have presented over this year.

May the true spirit of Christmas shine in your hearts and surround you with peace and joy this Christmas.

Your M & S Team.

What is Blue Christmas or Longest Night Worship?

On December 21st at 7pm in our main worship space (3555 5th Ave 5th and Union) our community will gather and acknowledge that while the culture around us is constantly telling us to be happy, joyous, and bright this isn't the experience of Christmas for many of us. Instead, Christmas is complicated and overlaid with a sense of grief, loss, anger, and sadness, any of which could be grounded in history or current experience. If this is true for you, know that you are not alone. If, for whatever reason, you're feeling more blasé than hurray! grieving any transition or loss, this is for you. Together, on the longest day of the year, we name the darkness that is real. We enter it trusting that the darkness isn't something to be afraid of or to shy away from but is a place of new life. With hope we own the realities of life and look forward to what can emerge as the light breaks in. Combining hymns, music, readings, silence, reflection, ornaments, and candles we join together in a supportive and safer space with one another and the Holy.

Christmas Eve

Kids & Chaos - 4PM | Family - 6PM

Communion - 9PM

A Green-er Christmas

WEEK ONE

- Reduce Christmas lights and /or switch to LED bulbs
- Decorate a large plant instead of a traditional Christmas tree
- Take a city bus for one of your Christmas errands
- Make a Shoebox gift or buy a bag of hats for kids in lieu of a gift
- Have a discussion with youth in your life about climate change
- Turn down the thermostat in your house and put on a Christmas sweater
- Sew your own gift bags or reuse gift bags from previous years

WEEK TWO

- Reuse one side of Christmas cards to make gift tags
- Treat yourself to a special Christmas coffee but skip the drive-thru
- Make a donation to a charity in honour of a friend
- Put your Christmas lights on a timer
- Check your fireplace damper to ensure it is closed and check for drafts
- Try a meatless Monday
- Take your reusable cup if you go for coffee

WEEK THREE

- Check the weather stripping on your doors and windows
- Ask your family for a coupon for services in lieu of a gift
- Put a rolled-up blanket by a door to prevent drafts
- Plan your holiday meals to avoid food waste
- Turn out the lights when you leave a room
- Ask your dinner guests to bring their own take away containers for leftovers
- Sort through your sock drawer or glove collection and donate items

WEEK FOUR

- Ask friends to bring a non-perishable food item when they come to visit; bring the items to the church for ACE Sunday in January
- Walk through your neighbourhood to see Christmas lights
- Put each person's unwrapped gifts in a re-useable Santa sack
- Celebrate Christmas! Count your Blessings.
- Take a break, put your feet up and contemplate if this Advent you took some steps to help God's creation.

A huge thank you to the Care of Creation Team at Trinity United Church for putting this Advent Calendar together!

THE KNOX PERFORMANCE CENTRE TAKES SHAPE

For almost two years we've been working on turning the sanctuary space at TrinityDT into a more accessible, flexible, and user-friendly performance centre. In February 2022 the small fire and ensuing restoration of the sanctuary space and the lower hall meant there were some decisions that needed to be made and projects that were planned to unfold over a longer period of time that all of a sudden were feasible much sooner. Because of the renovation funding as part of our insurance claim, it was possible to apply for a Northern Develop Initiatives Trust Grant. We were successful and awarded $137,500. We were also successful in applying for a $20,000 Faithful Footprints grant from The United Church of Canada to invest in building upgrades that lower our carbon footprint. We have been awarded another grant that will be made public on December 7 and have submitted a grant application to The United Church of Canada Foundation through the EDGE Network. The success of the EDGE grant be known by late December or early in 2023. We plan on applying for a Heritage Canada grant before the end of December. In total between grant money, insurance, donations, volunteer labour, and our own capital investment, between $340-440,000 will be invested in our TrinityDT facility. Already people are enjoying and loving the revamped space and communities across Canada are inquiring about what we're doing and how we're doing it and that's while we're still doing the work!

What's that funding being used for? A new roof on the sanctuary that had to be done this year. Removal of the pews and new chairs. A new high-efficient in-floor radiant heating system. New professional grade PA and stage lighting system. New emergency doors. Whisper silent low wattage reversible ceiling fans. A platform accessibility lift for the stage. A new stage. New flooring. Revamped balcony. New artist spaces. New and revamped storage. New windows in the lounge and a new serving counter in the lounge. And that's just the beginning. The goal is to create a 300-seat performance centre that enables us to reach more people and fill a need in our city. A centre that is flexible in how it can be configured; accessible both physically and economically; begins addressing deferred maintenance and upgrading; helps us live out our core values; and live into our ministry priorities of building community, anti-racism and right relations, and care of creation. In short, we're giving the building another 50 years of life, the city an amazing performance centre, and Trinity United a new way to do ministry.

How are we able to do all of that? Basically because of the people of Trinity United and their willingness to both embrace this project and see it as an opportunity to serve both our church and wider community. Literally hundreds of hours have been donated so far by an impressive group of people from teen to septuagenarian. However, a huge expression of gratitude must go to one person: Gary Dean. When there's a challenge to be solved, he's the one we've turned to. When the heating system needed to be rotated 90 degrees, he's the one who figured it out. The list goes on. Thank you, Gary!

And we're not done yet. The work in the balcony, artist spaces, sound and lighting installation are the next big pieces to be completed before the end of January. When the call goes out, please consider this opportunity to serve. If you can follow directions(ish), and use a hammer, drill, saw, or paint brush – we've got a job for you!
