Opening Hymn #622

How bright appears the morning star with mercy beaming from afar; the host of heaven rejoices. O righteous Branch of Jesse's rod, true Light of Light and God of God, we, too, will lift our voices. Jesus, Jesus, holy, holy yet most lowly, ever near us, great Emmanuel, swift to hear us.

Though circled by the hosts on high, you looked on us with pitying eye and saved your sinful creature; the whole creation's head and Lord, by highest seraphim adored, you took our very nature. Amen, amen, alleluia, alleluia, praise be given evermore by earth and heaven.

You come in peace and meekness and lowly will your cradle be; all clothed in human weakness shall we your Godhead see. Refrain Dear Saviour, haste! Come, come to earth. and bid us hail the dawn of grace. O come, Divine Messiah; the world in silence waits for day when hope shall sing its triumph and sadness flee away.

Closing Hymn #100 Comfort, Comfort Ye My People

Comfort, comfort ye my people; speak ye peace: thus says your God. Comfort those who sit in darkness bowed beneath oppression's load; speak ye to Jerusalem of the peace that waits for them: tell her that her sins I cover, and her warfare now is over.

Hark! The herald's voice is calling in the desert far and near, calling us to new repentance. since the reign of God is here. Oh, the warning call obey! Now prepare for Christ a way; let the valleys rise to meet him and the hills bow down to greet him.

Make ye straight what long was crooked; make the rougher places plain. Let your hearts be true and humble as befits Messiah's reign. For the glory of the Lord now o'er earth is shed and abroad, and flesh shall we see the token that God's Word is never broken.
