

Discussion Questions

Psalm 25

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

What are the prerequisites for the person the Lord will lead? What type of person will receive the blessing of God's guidance and instruction? In which of these areas do you desire to grow?

In what areas of your life are you praying for God's guidance? His wisdom? How have you been led in the past, in circumstances or decisions, by the Word of God?

What has the experience of 'waiting on the Lord' looked like in your life?

What does David want God to remember? What does he want God to forget?

What attributes of the Lord does David mention in this Psalm? Why are these important to meditate on in trying times?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?

