Discussion Questions

Psalm 26

What stood out to you in the podcast and/or in the reading of this Psalm?

What are some similarities between Psalm 26 and Psalm 1. How is David seeking to be the Psalm 1 type of man?

What are the challenges to setting the steadfast love ever before our eyes? What are we consumed with thinking about that takes its place? How does meditating on the steadfast love of the Lord influence our walk of faith?

How do you see the 'set apart' life in this Psalm? How is David set apart from the world? See vs.4-5. How is he set apart for God? See v. 7.

How does this Psalm teach us to worship God? What does it teach us to prioritize?

What truths in this Psalm encourage your heart? Which truths challenge you?