Snowball Fight Dec 16th

Key Words: Red vs. Green, Capture the Candy Cane, Snowballs, Hot Cocoa with Marshmallows, Snow Cones . . . Oh Baby! Though to be clear, that last one isn't a key word. There will be NO BABIES at this event.

Wheel of Misfortune! Jan 13th

It's like the popular TV game show except kids must risk spinning the wheel to complete a random consequence. Consequences may include: eating baby food, 100 jumping jacks, putting all your clothes on backwards, writing a poem about how great Tom is . . . and more! But don't worry, for those who play there will also be some genuinely awesome prizes.

Marble Run Jan 27th

Teams will compete to move a marble from one side of the room to the other side. They can only use cardboard, toilet rolls, straws, tape, and good ol' fashioned gravity! Though I guess you could also cheer-on your little marble if you think that might give you a competitive edge? Or does that mean you've lost your marbles?

The Awkward Olympics Feb 10th

Pool Noodle Throwing, Overripe Banana Relay Racing, Crab Walk Hurdles, The Great Bedsheet Biathlon! The world has neglected and shunned some of the best sports to ever exist! But no longer . . . on this night we GO FOR THE MOLD! Oooops. Meant Gold. Awkward.
