ADVICE FOR THE NEW YEAR

-Mother Teresa

- ◆ People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.
- ◆ If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.
- ◆ If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies. Succeed anyway.
- ◆ If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you. Be honest and frank anyway.
- ◆ If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous. Be happy anyway.
- ◆ What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight. Build anyway.
- ◆ The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow. Do good anyway.
- ◆ Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough. Give the world the best you have anyway.

You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God.
It was never between you and them anyway.

CARD SHOWER THIS WEEK:

Trudy Annese is Libby Wooten's grandmother, and is critically ill. She has cared for her granddaughter throughout Libby's whole life. Will you please send Trudy a card of cheer this week? Her address is . . .

74 Twp. Road 1137
 Proctorville, OH

Our hearts were saddened this past week, as we received the news that Darla Lyon passed away on Christmas morning. Many of our women knew Darla as she participated in our women's programs. Please keep her family in your prayers.

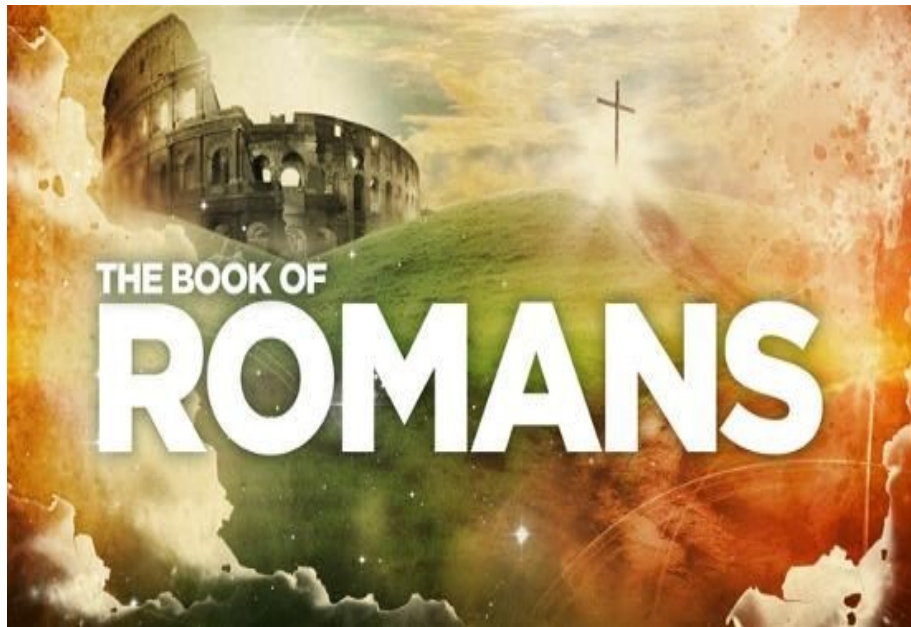

Audio One-Year Bible Online

Read the Bible through in a year! Start 2023 by following the New Living Translation (NLT) Bible readings each day on One Year Bible Online. The daily audio readings consist of passages from the Old and New Testament, Psalms and Proverbs. Each day's readings is only about 20 minutes and includes great commentary by Tom Dooley.

WELCOME! We are glad that you have chosen to worship at Beulah on this first Sunday of the New Year! We count it a privilege to gather together as the body of Christ to worship Him in unity and purpose.

Romans presents an amazingly beautiful and simple message: THE GOSPEL IS FOR EVERYONE! While this book might have a lot to say about a lot of different issues, it also tells the simple story of God's salvation plan for the world. Romans is all about the God who has revealed himself in Jesus Christ.

January 2023 Events

January 4 5:00 PM	First Church Board Meeting of the New Year Beulah's newly elected officers for our church begin serving this week. Encourage them and hold them up in prayer as they oversee decisions to be made. The first board meeting of the year is this Wednesday. Pray that God continues to bless our church!
January 8 -Noon- Immediately after the morning service	Meet Beulah! Pastor Rob will meet with anyone following the morning service on January 8 who may be interested in learning about the vision, history and future for the people here at Beulah. If you are interested in joining the Beulah family, plan on staying for a brief meeting. Rob will provide a snack for everyone attending.
January 10 6:00 PM	One Another Women's Ministry This will be the kickoff meeting for the new year. All ladies of all ages are encouraged to participate. See Patti Bradley for more information.
January 19 12:00-2 PM	Young at Heart This is our monthly get together of senior "young at heart" ladies. Lunch is at noon, followed by a time of devotion and fellowship. Always an enjoyable afternoon!

God With Us

The man whispered, "God, speak to me"
And a meadowlark sang. But, the man did not hear.
So the man yelled, "God, speak to me"
And the thunder rolled across the sky. But, the man did not listen.
The man looked around and said, "God let me see you."
And a star shined brightly, but the man did not see.
And, the man shouted, "God show me a miracle."
And, a life was born. But, the man did not notice.
So, the man cried out in despair, "Touch me God, and let me know you are here."
Whereupon, God reached down and touched the man. But, the man brushed the butterfly away and walked on.
The man cried, "God, I need your help!"
And an e-mail arrived reaching out with good news and encouragement. But, the man deleted it and continued crying.....

♥ Don't miss out on God's blessings because they aren't packaged the way that you expect.

One Solitary Life

-unknown

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in still another village, where he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty. Then for three years he was an itinerant preacher.

He never wrote a book.

He never held an office.

He never had a family or owned a house.

He didn't go to college.

He never traveled 200 miles from the place where he was born.

He did none of these things one usually associates with greatness.

He had no credentials but himself.

He was only 33 when public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves.

When he was dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing, the only property he had on earth. When he was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race, the leader of mankind's progress.

All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on earth as much as that One Solitary Life.
