

Amos: Let Justice Roll Down Series

Practice / Week 1

Week 1: Amos: Let Justice Roll Down January 8, 2023

Begin with Prayer

- Whether you are alone or with a group, in a living room or around a table, take a few minutes to invite the Holy Spirit to be with you and guide your time.

Reflection Questions

- In chapter 1, the prophet Amos pronounces judgement on Israel and Judah AND the surrounding nations. The rest of the book lays out specific reasons for that judgement and in the end gives evidence that everyone answers to God. How might this thought be an encouragement?
- Everyone answers to God because everyone is accountable to God. This means that no matter how we live in this life, when it's over our actions and (as Amos points out) inactions will be examined by God. Is this thought encouraging or threatening to you? Why?
- Consider your perspective of Justice and Judgement. Are they influenced by scripture or influenced by the culture around you?

Notes

- In this series, we want to let the Lord recalibrate our attitudes and perspectives of justice and judgement. Is it one or the other or do these things work together? Lots of questions for sure but ultimately we want to let the Lord guide our theology of these things.
- If you are interested in digging deeper and thinking about a biblical framework for justice, we encourage you to check out the video from the CBAC Justice Summit link below!

Close in Prayer

Recommended Resources:

- FBC Rooted & Reaching Podcast @ myfbc.ca
- Message from Rev. Lennett Anderson from the CBAC Justice Summit in November 2022.
<https://baptist-atlantic.ca/our-convention/departments/justice-and-advocacy/>