Opening Hymn

Joyful, Joyful We Adore You

Text: Henry van Dyke (1852-1933), alt. Music: HYMN TO JOY; Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827)

1. Joyful, joyful we adore you, God of glory, life, and love; hearts unfold like flowers before you, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the gloom of doubt away;
giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.

2. All your works with joy surround you, earth and heaven reflect your rays, stars and angels sing around you, centre of unbroken praise.
Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea, chanting bird and flowing fountain, sound their praise eternally.

3. You are giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blest, well-spring of the joy of living, ocean depth of happy rest!
Source of grace and fount of blessing, let your light upon us shine;
teach us how to love each other, lift us to the joy divine.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit, who comforts, strengthens, and inspires, sending us forth to share your love. You are the breath of grace.

Offertory Hymn

I Am the Light of the World

Text and Music: Jim Strathdee

Refrain (Unison)

"I am the light of the world! You peo-ple come and fol-low mel" If you fol-low and love you'll learn the mys-te-ry of what you were meant to do and be.

Fine

1. When the song of the angels is stilled.
When the star in the sky is gone.
When the kings and the shepherds have found their way home.
The work of Christmas is begun! Refrain

2. To find the lost and lonely one,

to heal the broken soul with love,
to feed the hungry children with warmth and good food,
to feel the earth below, the sky above! Refrain

3. To free the prisoner from all chains, to make the powerful care,
to rebuild the nations with strength of goodwill,
to see God's children everywhere. Refrain

4. To bring hope to every task you do, to dance at a baby's new birth,
to make music in an old person's heart,
and sing to the colours of the earth! Refrain

Presider Source Eternal, we bring our offerings to you.

All glory and honour are yours, our true and loving God.

Your word has never been silent.

Of your grace, you sent Jesus to be human, to share our life,
to proclaim the coming of your holy reign,
and to give himself for us.

Through Jesus Christ you have reconciled us to you and restored the glory you intended for us.

On the night before he died, Jesus ate supper with his friends.
He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying:
“Take and eat. This is my very self, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

Then he took the cup of wine, again he gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying:
“Drink it all of you. This cup is a new covenant poured out for you and all people.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, we remember:
the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension,

and, longing for Christ's coming again in glory,
we present these gifts to you.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts,
so that we who share this bread and wine
may be a people of hope, justice and love.

Draw us together in Christ,
and, in the fullness of time, gather us with all your people into the joy of your eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ,
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
we worship you our God and Creator and give you our unending praise.

All

Amen.

Presider

In the spirit of Jesus' teaching, let us pray.

All

Abba God in heaven, holy is your name.
May your community of shalom be realized,
here on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us each what we need for today.
Forgive us our wrongdoings,
and help us release those who wrong us.
Save us from times of trial, and deliver us from all evil.
For you hold truth and justice and love,
now and forever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider

This is the bread of life given in love for us.
This is the cup of restored relationship with God.
These are the gifts of God for all God's people.

All

Thanks be to God.

Sharing the Gifts

All who know the struggles of life, its fractures within and its division without, and who seek fellowship with Christ, are invited to share in Communion.

If you are not physically receiving Communion, you may offer this prayer:

In union, O God, with all your faithful people gathered wherever the eucharist is celebrated this day, I offer you praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption given to us through the life, death and resurrection of Christ, and for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I pray you come into my heart, my soul and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you. May I serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your promised life of justice and peace; through Christ and in the unity of the Spirit. Amen.

While communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence— this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.

A reminder that Healing Prayer is being offered in the alcove during communion. Those desiring prayer are invited to line up. We ask that others do not enter the alcove during this time to safeguard privacy.
