

Hello!

Born in Chapel Hill, NC Jessica grew up an Air Force dependent, therefore she has lived and traveled all over the world. However, home has always been in North Carolina where her roots run deep. She has fond memories of summers spent on the shores of Shackleford Banks and staying with family in Morehead City.

Jessica has a Bachelor's in Business Administration & Management from Troy University. It was there that she met her husband, Aaron. Upon graduating they moved to Atlanta, Ga. Jessica went into the consumer finance industry. Due to her combined drive and determination, she quickly worked her way up to be a Manager for Wells Fargo.

After achieving a successful career in the corporate world, she and her husband decided to start a family so Jessica left the workforce to pursue her lifetime role as a wife and mother. It was her heart's desire and the Lord's calling to be home with her children when they were little. In addition to homeschooling, Jessica has become a parent advocate and an active participant in the local public school system. She has served in church ministries, lead VBS music, volunteered within public schools and the community.

The Hunt family now calls Jacksonville, NC home where Jessica serves as our Preschool Director at Trinity. As a parent, she desired their children to attend a Christian preschool. As a believer, Jessica is passionate about ministering to the hearts of children and their families. Having her father as a preacher and her mother as a teacher played an integral role in her life. Their influence shaped her to believe that teaching children is both a calling and a ministry! Jessica understands the importance of laying a firm foundation for children to be grounded in faith, which is rooted in the Word of God.

In her free time Jessica enjoys watching her children play sports, going out on the boat with family, enjoying the beach, camping, traveling, reading, participating in Bible studies and having meaningful conversation with close friends.
