

Psalm 23:1–3

A Psalm of David.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures.

He leads me beside still waters.

He restores my soul.

He leads me in paths of righteousness

for his name's sake. (ESV)

Ezekiel 34:13–15

And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the country. I will feed them with good pasture, and on the mountain heights of Israel shall be their grazing land. There they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on rich pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I myself will make them lie down, declares the Lord GOD. (ESV)

SHEEP
FOLLOWING THE SHEPHERD

A person is kneeling on a dark hill, their hands raised in prayer. The background is a soft, hazy sunset or sunrise over a landscape with mountains. The overall color palette is warm and monochromatic, dominated by shades of brown and gold.

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel.

MARK 1:15

A photograph of an open book with glasses and a lit candle. The book is open, showing two pages of text. A pair of black-rimmed glasses is resting on the pages. To the left of the book, a lit candle is glowing, casting a warm light. The entire scene is set against a dark background.

"We don't get to completely redefine who God is and how he works in the world and call it Christian. We don't get to make the rules and do what is right in our own eyes and yet claim to be the followers of Jesus. Our only option is to do it his way or not at all."

"Another Gospel? A Lifelong Christian Seeks Truth in Response to Progressive Christianity"

Our main work is, by the spirit of God, with the Word of God, to portray the glories of God as more beautiful and more satisfying than anything.

God's Kingdom isn't divided into areas of important people and areas of little people. In God's sight, everyone's needful.

Christianity means community through Jesus Christ and in Jesus Christ. No Christian community is more or less than this.

ISAIAH 40:11 KJV

In the cross of Christ God is taking man dead-seriously so that he may open up for him the happy freedom of Easter. God takes upon himself the pain of negation and the God forsakenness of judgement to reconcile himself with his enemies and to give the godless fellowship with himself.
