Discussion questions for Acts 20:17-24

1. In what ways were the challenges and dangers that Paul faced similar to those encountered by the three young missionaries when they went to “the Sudan”? In what ways were they different?
2. In what ways are the challenges and dangers that Christians face today, whether they are called to serve in a foreign context or in their home countries, similar to those faced in the past? In what ways are they different?
3. What are some ways the Lord may indicate to us what He intends for us to do? How might we discern His leading in our lives?
4. What are some things that can hinder us from being obedient to God’s call on our lives?
5. What can cause us to focus more on temporal or physical things (“the sand”) than on God’s purpose for our lives (“the bicycle”)?
6. In today’s context, what are some ways that we can follow Paul’s challenge to work towards fulfilling “the task of testifying to the gospel of God’s grace”?
