ORDER OF MORNING WORSHIP

March 26, 2023

MEDITATION

All merit of works is thus excluded from being the cause of justification, when the whole is ascribed to faith. For faith,—so far as it embraces the undeserved goodness of God, the testimony of our adoption which is contained in the gospel,—is universally contrasted with the law, the merit of works, and with human excellence.

- John Calvin

“Praise the LORD!
I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart,
in the company of the upright, in the congregation.
Great are the works of the LORD,
studied by all who delight in them.”

- Psalm 111:1–2 (ESV)

CONFESSION of SIN (on screen)

Almighty and most merciful Father, you hate nothing that you have made, nor desire the death of a sinner. Look down with mercy upon us, and grant that we may turn from our wickedness and live. Forgive the days and years which we have passed in folly, idleness, and sin. Fill us with sorrow for the time we have misspent, that we may change our lives according to your holy Word; strengthen us against habitual idleness, and enable us to direct our thoughts to the performance of every duty; that while we live we may serve you in the state to which you shall call us, and at last by a holy and happy death be delivered from the struggles and sorrows of this life, and obtain eternal happiness by your mercy, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

- based on a prayer from Samuel Johnson

ASSURANCE of PARDON (on screen)

“My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.”
