

Easter Sunday

April 9, 2023

Discussion Questions

1. How have you stepped out in faith this past week?
2. This past Friday was Good Friday. Based on what happened to Christ on that day, do you think it should really be referred to as "good"? Why/Why not?
3. When sharing the Gospel, why do you think so many Christians stop at the cross, failing to mention the resurrection? Why is the resurrection an essential part of the Gospel?
4. How do celebrating Communion and celebrating the resurrection walk hand in hand?
5. In the early church, Christians celebrated the resurrection every Sunday. What are practical ways we might do this in our context?
6. Look up and list verses that speak to the resurrection born again Christians will experience someday.

Easter Sunday

April 9, 2023

Discussion Questions

1. How have you stepped out in faith this past week?
2. This past Friday was Good Friday. Based on what happened to Christ on that day, do you think it should really be referred to as "good"? Why/Why not?
3. When sharing the Gospel, why do you think so many Christians stop at the cross, failing to mention the resurrection? Why is the resurrection an essential part of the Gospel?
4. How do celebrating Communion and celebrating the resurrection walk hand in hand?
5. In the early church, Christians celebrated the resurrection every Sunday. What are practical ways we might do this in our context?
6. Look up and list verses that speak to the resurrection born again Christians will experience someday.