Walk Down Memory Lane night on April 14th will be here soon. We are still looking for memorabilia to have on display. So far we have First Communion pictures, Graduation pictures, yearbooks, First Communion prayer books, trophies, St. Joseph basketball jersey, variety of pamphlets, First Communion dresses and other miscellaneous items. We will have on display a 1920 First Communion dress of Virginia Brown Stevenson along with their picture and certificate. So check your closets and cedar chests for treasures to put on display. Please clearly mark your items. Memorabilia items can be dropped off at the rectory or at the houses of Shirley Langley (620-475-3470) or Barb Kuhlmann (620-475-3438). You can call and we will be glad to pick up local items. Looking forward to a memorable evening!

Walking with Moms in Need

In March , our group had a sale of "Everything Baby" for Shiloh House of Hope Pregnancy Center. The sale brought in $1,500 towards an ultrasound machine.

During the Lenten Season, our parish members donated diapers, wipes, and children's clothing. These items have been delivered to Shiloh House.

Thanks to everyone, Shiloh House was very happy with all the support you have given them. A special Thank You to the Knights for their donation of diapers.

God is good all the time!

UPDATES ON ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC SCHOOL FAREWELL EVENT

Please see the attached flyer of events for this special weekend!

Please watch for a Flocknote announcement for the opportunity to sign up to assist with Friday and Saturday activities.

We continue to collect St. Joseph School memorabilia for a "Walk Through Memory Lane" to be displayed in the school basement on the evening of the tour, Friday, April 14, and during the dinner, Saturday, April 15.

If you have articles we could use for the display (yearbooks, pictures, awards, books, etc.), please call Shirley Langley (475-3470) or Barb Kuhlmann (475-3438) or deliver them to the church office during office hours.

Please label them clearly with your name so they can be returned to you after the display.

If you are interested in seeing some of the items that will be on the Saturday auction, watch for updates to the J&D Auction Service website at kansasauctions.net or jdauctionservices.com. The Friday evening "Walk Down Memory Lane" will also provide an opportunity to preview auction items.
