

The Crucifixion

Samuel Barber

Ms. Kaitlyn Sproules, soloist

*At the cry of the first bird they began to crucify Thee, O Swan!
Never shall lament cease because of that. It was like the parting of day from night.
Ah, sore was the suffering borne by the body of Mary's Son,
But sorer still to Him was the grief which for His sake came upon His Mother.*

And All the World was Silent

Lee/Wagner

*And all the world was silent when Christ came forth to die.
The sparrows ceased their singing; the sun had left the sky.
The brilliant daylight darkened as hearts with grief were bound.
Stilled by tears and sorrow, the earth made not a sound.
And all the world was silent when Christ drew His last breath.
The old and young together prayed to comfort Him in death,
And with their supplications, a prayer for them as well;
"O Lord, be with us ever, in life and at our end."
Miserere, miserere, miserere Domine. Silent, silent,
Miserere, miserere, miserere Domine.
And all the world was silent, the earth made not a sound. Miserere.*

Be Still

Chancel Choir

Dan and Heidi Goeller

*Be still before the Lord; wait patiently for Him. Be still.
Truly my soul finds rest in God. My soul finds rest in God alone.
My salvation comes from Him. My hope comes from Him.
Find rest, O my soul, in God alone.
Be still before the Lord; wait patiently for Him. Be still.
Those who live in the shelter of the Most High
Will find rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
Be still before the Lord; wait patiently for Him. Be still.*

When Christ Went to the Temple

Mr. Billy Ralph Winkler, soloist

C. Winfrey Gillett

*When Christ went to the Temple to worship God one day,
He entered through the courtyard where anyone could pray.
That court was for the nations — and all could enter in.
But Jesus found a market, a shameful robbers' den.
There, cattle, sheep and pigeons were sold for sacrifice,
And moneychangers shouted of quality and price.
Outsiders could not enter the inner courts for prayer.
Their only place to worship was in the courtyard there.
When prayer gave way to profit, and pride closed many doors,
The Lord cried out in anger and made a whip of cords.
He shoed the sheep and cattle and scattered pigeons, too.
God's house was for all people — not for a chosen few.
O God, you love the nations and call us all to pray.
Forgive us when our worship turns other folk away.
As Christ, in loving protest, fought prejudice and pride,
May we who follow Jesus now welcome all inside.*

Scripture Reading

Matthew 26:17-30

Mrs. Talana Trexler

Abba

Boersma/Courtney

*Abba, Abba, like a whisper in the wind I hear my name.
In a sound so like a sigh, again it came.
Your disciples gathered with You do not hear,
Yet the whisper of my name has reached my ear.
I am here, my Son, here in the upper room. I hear the water gently splash,
I see the Servant King tending to His friends.
Here I am, here in the upper room. But as You serve the bread and wine,
The broken body and the blood are Yours alone.
Abba, Abba, like a whisper in the wind I hear my name.
In a sound so like a sigh, again it came.
With a whisper that is heard by God alone.
Abba, Abba, my only Son begins His painful journey home.*
