First Alliance Church Arts Camp is designed to give children the chance to experience a wide variety of creative arts.

Registration forms will be available beginning May 1, 2023 at the First Alliance Church office and on our website

NOTE: Each child will need a completed activities release form signed by a parent or guardian before their child can be registered or participate. Space is limited / spaces will be filled on a first come basis.

A healthy breakfast and lunch will be provided for each child in attendance.

In addition, campers will gain a new appreciation for our Great Creator, God, through Bible Adventures.
