Missionary of the Week Tony and Melody Olson, Black Forest Academy, Germany

Tony and Melody are teachers at the Black Forest Academy in Germany. Tony teaches geography and Melody teaches piano to international students. Pray for their ministry of influence in young lives for the Lord. Pray that they will have the health and strength to finish this school year and embark on their home assignment this summer. Pray for good family contacts while home. Praise God for the ongoing success of BFA which is in its 70th year and for the Olson’s 30 years of teaching ministry.

Margaret Gillespie’s Testimony

I came to know Christ as Savior on August 4, 1977 while in college. Over the next few years of service in the church and growth, I realized God was calling me to global ministries. Through many life changes and unexpected bumps in the road, I learned to lean into God and His promises. My assurance comes from knowing His Holy Spirit is with me always. I know that my relationship with God is strengthened as I read and study scripture, spend time in prayer and fellowship with other believers.

Brittney Sherwood’s Testimony

I chose to follow Christ when I was going into grade 9 (about 13 years old). I grew up going to the Westlock Gospel Chapel and was encouraged to get into God’s Word daily. God spoke to me through His Scriptures and touched my heart. After high school I attended PRBI and Prairie College to further develop my relationship with Christ and in obedience to the call He has placed on my life for missions.
